BY AUTHOR: GEORGE KEVYN WEBER.

PRELUDE:

By way of prelude to the above book I George Kevyn Weber the author would like to explain to the reader how revelation works. There are many types of revelation gifting that various people have. The one type of gifting that is in use here is given by the Spirit of truth which is a definite part of the Holy Spirit of God and of Christ.

The human body consists of body, soul and spirit which is one person and one flesh. God on the other hand consists of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit which is one God and one Spirit. The Devil, Satan and Lucifer consist of the Devil, Satan and Lucifer which is one Devil and one fallen angel.

This will help the reader to understand, grasp and comprehend this truth which is recorded in the Christian bible in its various pages and which can be confirmed to anyone reading the Word of God with a clean, pure and unbiased mind assisted by the Spirit of God in them.

Without the Spirit of God being in them the Human being is not capable of seeing or entering into the kingdom of God or the Kingdom of Heaven. It is just not possible Jesus said.

I have found this to be true in my own life. Having asked God to come into me, my own personal life and my life. He did just that. He did that by giving me His Spirit, His Holy Spirit and the Spirit of truth who lives in me. It is not an it, it is He, God Himself in me.

I am not alone in the earth having this privilege, because millions of people the world over have this privilege in them as well. You too can have this privilege if you read this book and except its revelatory truth and then go to God at any stage of your reading and ask him for the promise of Jesus to be given you by Him. Ask Him for the Holy Spirit to be given you according to His promise in His word and He will do it for you.

The Spirit of truth is not another Spirit but is part of the Holy Spirit and this you need to ask Him for as well. See the book of John in the Christian bible and read from chapter twelve through to chapter seventeen. This is the basis of the Christian faith.

The whole word of God in the bible is equally important as are these chapters but these chapters give a quick shortened introduction of the basic truth of the word of God for your enlightenment about what the Lord Jesus Christ is saying in this revelation.

He loves you and he cares about you and He desires that you believe what He has to say to you by His Spirit and by His word in this revelation that expounds what He and His Father are busy doing in the world that we live in. He also expounds His plan will and purpose for man on the earth in the time that lies ahead.

Read, listen and learn.

Regards and love in Him.

THE FOREWORD. THE VOICE OF THE SEVEN THUNDERS.

God has given me the words of this revelation word for word. He asked me to record them. It was not my mind involved in the recording of the words of this revelation.

I listened to the voice of God speaking to me very clearly and precisely which I then recorded.

I never had to think about what I had to write. I just listened to the words pouring out of my spirit.

I never knew what I was writing as I was writing. It was automatic writing and I never could predict what words would come forth.

Sometimes I had heard some words which I was not sure about and then I would ask the Lord what is the right word and He would give it to me. I was astonished at His wisdom and insight.

The revelation came forth in perfect English. Even more perfect than I could speak it.

The spelling was not given me; I had to use my discretion. Spelling was not important because there is a spell checker on the computer.

The computer often wanted to correct the sentences or the sense of what the voice told me to write and how to write it.

I was told to write it exactly; therefore I did not use the computer sentences or senses.

I was often attacked by the enemy and had to backtrack a couple of words and then hear correctly.

I would make sure I was in the spirit and I would keep myself under the blood of the Lamb of God.

This kept the revelation pure.

I would be in the middle of a sentence and my wife would call me for breakfast, dinner or supper and I would leave off writing and go and eat. I would help her dry the dishes and often had to go and do something else.

When I came back to write the voice carried on where it left off exactly. I did not have to go and read over what I had written. The voice just carried on.

God astounded me with this procedure.

I very seldom read what I had written leaving it to when I typed the manuscript onto the computer.

I was astounded at the accuracy of what was recorded and also it's content and intent as well. Its English grammar and sentence structure was amazing.

Many words that I did not know personally came out of my spirit. This is a true revelation from God given by the Spirit of God. I cannot claim infallibility for myself but I do say I have listened very carefully and I have recorded what I heard.

I have tried to test, by the Spirit and the Word, what I heard.

Some things as heard are spiritually correct according to the Word of God which I have studied and prayed over since a boy of fourteen 14 years of age. I am at this present time 67 years old.

Seeking God intensely and sincerely and asking him for my life's work, He has asked and told me to write for Him these revelations.

He met with me in a great white light about eight and a half years ago and after that He gave me nine books to write for Him. Seven books were written in one and a half years. These books consist in total of one hundred and forty s sub chapters.

The eighth book has taken me seven and a half years to write. It consists of twenty chapters and two hundred and twenty subchapters. Or twenty books with two hundred and twenty subchapters.

The ninth book is an autobiography He told me to write as well which at the time of this writing is not finished yet.

The titles of the books were given to me as well as all the chapters, by revelation. Nothing of all these books was thought out by me.

It all came about by revelation through the voice of Christ given by the Holy Spirit.

Also in transposing the hand written manuscripts word for word onto the computers, I have been fanatically careful to do it word for word.

I have kept the original manuscripts hand written for use as a master copy for accuracy checks of the final products.

This is no easy task as it takes patience which I never had. God has helped me to become extremely patient.

This is a miracle in itself in my life from God.

I do not say I have no sin but I can say that with the Lord's help I do not live in sin.

I try to exercise the fruit of the Spirit and the graces of the Spirit of the Lord in my daily life.

These revelations consist of a total of 15 mysteries that God has given me. Seven are the mysteries of godliness and eight are the mysteries of iniquity.

These mysteries are given from the throne of God.

They are mysteries. They are not the word of God and they are not a new bible. They are based on God's written word expounded clearly for the end time and time of the end purpose of God.

The Lord instructed me to call the eighth revelation: The voice of the seven thunders.

I do not claim anything whatsoever to be my own thoughts, ideas and even opinions.

I merely wrote down what I heard.

I am not the author of the message. I am only the recorder. I did not think it out; I listened and recorded what I heard. God said to me that I am not responsible for or towards souls, He is. None of you are my souls, you are all God's souls and I respect you all for that.

I am not a judge nor am I the judge. God is.

God said to me "Just record the message; I am going to use it for my own glory."

He said "The message will go out through the whole world"

He said "You must not force the message on anyone"

"Just offer it to them and let them decide if they want it"

He said "They will hear or forbear to hear. Those that will receive it will receive it and those that won't, won't. Whoever receives you receives Me and My Father."

"Whoever receives these words, receives My words and the words of My Father."

Here is the revelation. Do not check the Word of God against the revelation. Check the revelation against the Word of God.

Recorder of the message.

THE INTRODUCTION TO “THE VOICE OF THE SEVEN THUNDERS”.

I am and never will be a writer that can put ideas, thoughts and intentions together into a book that will be acceptable to people. I do not have the personal capability to do this.

I am not, without the Lord telling me literally what to say, capable of writing books. I find it very tedious and extremely frustrating, the few times I have attempted to do so. My efforts landed up in the dust bin.

These books, which are actually revelations, given through the Spirit of the Lord, are a completely different matter. The Lord gave them to me by speaking to me, and by my listening very carefully, intently and observantly, I was able to commit them to paper. I did not, nor could not remember them, as my memory is very scant. I can hardly remember what happened three days ago, let alone remembering words numbering thousands upon thousands.

As I received the revelations, so I immediately recorded them word for word as God was talking to me. I have never in my life encountered such patience with me and my weakness, faults and failings as I listened and wrote what I heard. The voice was so gentle, kind and patient with me, and the work was spread over eight years. I learned patience from the Lord and I learned to love, from the Lord as well.

The message contained in this revelation is not God condemning man but man allowing himself to be condemned. God does not condemn whosoever He has come to save, by sending Jesus to save them, but allows all those that reject Jesus His Son, to be condemned of themselves.

Being condemned of themselves, He has no other option but to condemn them as well. Those that do not know about Jesus, or have never heard about Him, or have never known about His saving blood, will perish forever according to the scriptures.

That is why God sent Jesus to go and save the world. That is why this revelation is given by God, so that people may be informed about His saving grace.

God has many ways and many servants and many instruments that are passing the message of the gospel to as many as possible. He is using, books, the media and personal communication to spread the word emanating from His word. The bible.

In this oracle message he is warning whosoever reads it, to get ready for judgment or liberation by Jesus Christ the Son of God, who is also the Son of man. Choices are to be made that will either bring condemnation or liberty to all who choose. No choice is some choice. So there is no escaping the responsibility of our / your personal choice.

Some, in fact billions, will choose not to take the golden scepter of mercy extended towards them. That is their personal prerogative. Others, in fact billions, will choose to take hold of God's golden scepter of mercy and grace extended towards them. That is their personal prerogative. The word of God says that those that were bidden to the marriage of His Son, refused to come and they were unworthy to attend, therefore he sent His servants into the highways and the byways, to bid anyone to come to the wedding, so that the wedding feast would not be unattended.

You may be one of these.

Love from me and mine to you and all of yours. George Kevyn Weber. The recorder of the message.

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END

SUB CHAPTER 1A: THE BEAST MAKES HIS MOVE.

The time of the end will begin the moment the world dictator of the world is revealed to the world as the world ruler. He will be the supreme ruler of the new world order that will manifest itself in the world. He will be a man of boldness, and also a man of great boldness that will be evident from the way he will step into the post, as if he was made for it.

He will be a man of intense focus on world affairs, and he will not be well known in general in world circles and world affairs, that pertain to that which is required to fulfill the position as the leader of the new world order.

He will not take instructions from anyone but he will give instructions. The world will admire him because of his forthright manner and his bearing. He will not be afraid of anything or anybody, and he will be in full control of himself, and his faculties will be as sharp as a pin.

He will be brilliant and he will be wise in the ways of men. He will have complete control over himself and others will admire him for his composure and self control.

He will not want to know anything; he will know all things. He will be in touch with Satan, Lucifer the Devil who is an immortal being. He will not listen to man he will listen to Lucifer and Lucifer will be in him. He will read the minds of men and woman and he will know their innermost thoughts, and by this he will manipulate, control and deceive them into believing he is God. Nothing that he wants to know about man will escape his knowledge.

He will disregard God and he will not listen to God. He will not listen to anyone except Lucifer. Lucifer will be his god but he will not let onto anybody where he gets his information. His information will arise out of his mind and not out of his spirit

His mind will be filled with plans of a magnificent nature, and he will be able to predict correctly numbers of things that will occur to establish his credibility, and these prophecies and foretelling will be accurate in every detail with no exceptions. No one will stop him and no one will be able to outwit him. No one will be able to surprise him and no one will be able to gainsay his council and his wisdom and his knowledge. He will surpass the most brilliant man alive on earth in his time because his knowledge will be from Lucifer the fallen archangel of God.

He will not be proved wrong and he will take no nonsense from his subordinates. He will not subject himself to any counsel or anybody or any government. He will eradicate all mental opposition to him and his plans. He will not be found a liar and everyone will believe that the truth of God is in his mouth.

Fear will fall on them as his mind beats them time and time again. He will not speak evil of man, but he will put them on their place by a few words that will quell their arguments, and stop them in their tracks.

No one will outwit him and no one will be able to gainsay what he says, nor will they be able to reduce his reasoning down to their desires, because he will see their desires and he will fill them in to bring them under his control.

His ability to do this will charm them, please them and satisfy their minds and their hearts. He will flatter them with promises and his word will be his guarantee that what he says he will do but all on the exact right time when he desires to do so.

His charm will radiate in all directions and his presence will captivate his audience and bring them subtly under his control. He will not take long to do this because of his subtleness and cunning. He will be admired by all his contemporaries because of his godlike character and manner and bearing.

No one will oppose him for fear of reprisal. His word will be law and his word will not fail in its intention to impress people from the lowest to the highest. He will appear to be a man of flawless character and flawless ways. He will be magnificent in the eyes of men.

They will call him the magnificent one and he will live up to his reputation, all with the most gullible and wonderful promises. He will be crafty but no one will see his craftiness. He will look perfect in all his ways, and his manner and bearing will be precise and perfect, and he will draw attention and the focus will be on him wherever he goes.

No one will be able to fault his manner and ways and bearing and he will outshine all the leaders of history except one man the true Lord Jesus Christ the anointed of God. He will have no opposition because no one will see the need to oppose him because of his perfection.

The perfection they will see is the perfection of beauty but it will be the perfection of Lucifer that will appear as an angel of light. Only those with the true spirit of God, Christ and the Holy Spirit will be able to discern him.

No one that is not a part of God, Christ and the Spirit will be able to see through him. He will be transparent but it will be the transparency of Lucifer's deception. Lucifer will disguise himself so cleverly in this man, that not even the Satanists will recognize him, unless he chooses to reveal himself to them. He will not do that unless it suits him to do so.

He will take on the guise of a man that is empowered with wonderful attributes like as unto a god and even God and by this means he will deceive the whole world. Even the elect will be deceived if that is possible but the Lord of Heaven and earth will keep them from his whiles, his cunning and his deception.

Those that are the property of God, Christ and the Spirit will not be deceived and they will avoid him and his ways and his works. They will not listen to what he says and they will not do what he asks them to do. They will rather flee from his presence and from his directives, because they will not desire or long to be a part of him, or to be a follower or even an adherent of his. He will of course not be happy with them and he will oppose them and even kill them when the opportunity arrives.

He will be patient with them in the beginning of his reign and he will even appear to tolerate them, but he will plan his diabolical revenge on them and they will be caught out by his cunning, and they will then have a choice to do as he says or be killed.

He will not rest until he destroys them. He will not be able to destroy them he will only be able to kill them. It will not be in his power to destroy them even though he will believe that it is.

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END.

SUB CHAPTER 1 B: THE BEAST PLACES HIS ULTIMATUMS.

The Beast will do what he desires to do and no one will be able to stop him. The reason for this is that God the God of Heaven will allow Lucifer license to do as he pleases.

The reason for this is that God will allow all men on earth to be tried to see what is in their hearts. He knows what is in the heart of every man but He wants everyman to see what is in his own heart.

Those that come to Him and listen to Him and do what He says by, through, for, with and in His Spirit will be blessed according to their measure of obedience towards Him. Those that refuse to hearken will be blessed by Satan's false blessings, in other words his prosperity and success.

Satan's prosperity and success will be a deception and an illusion. That will ultimately fail and fall apart with disastrous results to those that will succumb to Lucifer's plan for their lives.

What Satan could not get right with mankind up to now, Lucifer will achieve. There will be two choices for man when the Antichrist appears. The one choice will be to follow and serve him and the other will be to follow and serve Christ the true Christ from Heaven. The Antichrist will give out that he is Christ and will come in the name of Christ, but he will be the false Christ, the false messiah of the world.

God has appointed a true messiah in fact the Messiah who is Jesus Christ of Nazareth that came to earth two thousand years ago as the savior of the world. Nothing that He did was wrong in God's eyes because God was in Him reconciling Himself to the world, even though the world did not recognize God in Christ. This was because they were wise in their own eyes and wise in their own conceits.

The Beast the Antichrist who will not be known to the world by that name will do wonderfully by his craft, cunning and deception, and will magnify himself above all that is God and above all that is man, and he will be wise in his own conceit.

He will make his moves and he will deliver his ultimatums and he will coerce all to bow down to his ways, manners and methods. He will be brilliant and he will astound the world concerning his knowledge, wisdom and his powers.

They will say who is like unto him and who can make war like him and they will be well and truly deceived into believing he is the promised Messiah of the bible.

The Jews will admire him and will accept him and will bow down to him and they will gladly listen to him and what he directs them to do because they will be deceived by his exploits.

No one will fear him, they will love him, and they will gladly follow him. Even the Pope of Rome will be impressed by his ingenuity, his cleverness and his ability. He will appear to be a god and even as if he is God.

The Roman Catholic Church has the Pope who is called God in the church of the Roman Catholics. So do not be deceived and say that the Antichrist will never be known as God on earth by the people who are deceived by him.

God the God of Heaven is tired of man and his ways and his disobedience and He is planning to use the Antichrist the Beast, the Antichrist and the false prophet to allow man to give himself over to what is in his heart.

If the Lord God of Heaven and Christ and the Holy Spirit is not in people's hearts to uplift them into the true ways of God, then their hearts will take over to lead them astray, after that which does not profit them or help them or benefit them.

It is to be remembered that there is the profit and benefit of the Lord in truth and in Spirit, and there is the profit and benefit of the Devil in falseness and in lies and these two will be referred to in the following subsequent writings as God's profit and benefit or as Satan's profit or benefit.

The benefit and profit that comes from Satan will be for the benefit or profit of the Kingdom of Satan whilst the benefit and profit that comes from Christ will be for the benefit and profit of the Kingdom of the Lord.

The Beast will use all he has at his disposal for the furtherance of his plans, will and purposes that inevitably will be for the benefit and profit of Satan's Kingdom on earth. This will only last for a relatively short while and then Satan will meet his match in the Lord Jesus Christ who will return to earth to short circuit his plans.

In the meantime the Beast will deliver his ultimatum to the world. "Receive me and live or reject me and die." His ultimatum will shake the world but because he will give out that he is Christ the messiah of the world, and because of his cunning, craft and guile he will convince them to accept him, for not what he is but what he says he is, and not for what he really is but for what he appears to be.

Christ the true Christ that came to earth two thousand years ago was what He said He was and He was what He gave Himself out to be.

That is Satan's deception, he only appears to be what he is and he only appears to be what he says he is. Satan will never be what he is not, whilst God will always be what He is.

The Beast cannot be what he is not, he can only be what he is and what he is what Lucifer makes of him. Lucifer being the clandestine angel that he is will live in and control the Beast and the Beast will take orders and instructions from him.

No man can be an angel and no man can be an angelic being, therefore Satan, Lucifer the Devil being an angel has attributes that no man can have or will have, until Christ returns to earth once again with His elect who will be as the angels of Heaven. Christ said so himself.

He said "Those that are accounted worthy of the resurrection will be as the angels of Heaven neither will they die anymore." No angel of God that obeys God will enter into any human being but Lucifer the fallen angel will enter into the Beast and from thence he will commence his diabolical work.

Men will receive what they desire to receive, that is a god that will allow them to do as they please and in doing so, they will please him who says he is god, and they will please him because he will allow them to please themselves.

Nothing will be withheld from them but he will control it all. He will give them their hearts desires but under his control and under his command and under his charge. He will deal out portions to each one that submits to him, but it will be with one reserve, he must be the master of the portion he gives out, and the owner of the portion will be he to whomsoever the master gives it to.

The Beast's ultimatum will always include a reward and benefit if accepted and a punishment and a loss if refused. He will take from one and give to another, the one who refuses him will be stripped of all he has, and it will be given to the one who accepts him and his ultimatums.

The ultimatums will be veiled but they will nevertheless be ultimatums, so cleverly designed and presented, that everyone will fall for them. What no one could get right with honest or veiled negotiations, he will get right with deceitful negotiations, cleverly disguised as the truth but containing the lie.

The vanity of the gullible will be exploited to achieve what could not else be achieved by any other means. An ultimatum given as a direct threat will bring swift refusal from the so called noble, but an ultimatum given under pretense and deceitfulness with guile and cunning will not be able to be refused, because the refuser will then be at a disadvantage, opening himself up to being stripped of all his noble intentions.

The man's charisma will shake his opponents and they will realize that he is not a man to be refused. This will be his draw card and his hand of power over his enemies. He will not be refused, he will only be acknowledged and he will be accepted.

If he is refused he will come on again and again until he is accepted. Modifications will be made to his benefit and to the oppositions benefit as well. What he takes from his opponents that refuse him will be given to those that are willing to bend before him.

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END.

SUB CHAPTER 1C: THE BEAST TAKES CONTROL OF THE WORLD.

The Beast will control the world eventually after he takes control but it will not happen immediately. He will take over as the world ruler but he will not immediately rule the world. This is because he will have to gain universal acceptance by the world and this will not happen immediately. One third of the world will accept him for what he is and what he gives out to be. Then as he gains acceptance in the world and from the world and to the world, he will eventually speedily gain acceptance by the rest of the world, except some nations that will not accept him as their leader.

This minority of nations will seek to appose him but will not succeed because of world pressure against them. However, he will tolerate them as a means of showing the world that he's a reasonable person, but he will earmark them for destruction at the first opportunity given him and made available. His cunning and craft will make him popular, and he will be charismatically inclined with a particular charisma of his own, that will not be duplicated nor copied. He will be able to alter his charisma to suit the moods of his adversaries and they will be lulled and bluffed into submission to him.

He will not be able to be detected or traced or pinned down to any fixed dogmas and he will be flexible to the point of distraction. These traits will suit the world and the world leaders and they will accept him and his proposals. He will operate in the realm of darkness, spiritual darkness where the people of darkness, will accept and cheer and honor him.

He will not betray any of his secret agendas to the leaders of the world and they will not see through his guise and ploy and deceit, nor will they be able to detect dishonor or evil in him, because he will be to them what they want and desire him to be to them. A father figure of great intensity and propensity that will cause them to adore him.

He will however have plenty of enemies and these will constitute those that refuse to hearken to him or to receive him and that appose him. The true followers of Christ will be among those in these categories, but so will the natural people that do not accept him, be against him.

He will not worry or concern himself with these people or groups. He will ignore their avoidance of him and their denunciation of him and their decrying of him.

In his vanity of heart he will believe that he can draw them unto himself, He will try that for three and a half years, but then he will turn the tables on them and he will go for them with everything in him and within him, and he will unleash every trick of cunning and deceit to get them destroyed.

He will turn and incite whole continents to avoid them, to destroy them and to disadvantage them at every turn of their human existence. He will use what they need to survive against them; so as to subvert them and intimidate them and persecute them into submission.

Submission to him and his evil ways will be required with the alternative to submission that is insubmission, punishable by death by decapitation. He will have no mercy and spare no one that does not yield to him and what he requires them to do.

He will not only order them to submit, he will give them a choice to submit and if they do not, then decapitation will be the inevitable price they will pay for their reluctance and refusal to submit to him, or and what he requires of them.

He will not yield to them or relinquish his desires to them nor will he abandon his wishes upon them. He will perform what he says he will perform. He will be ruthless to the point of fanaticism, and will not swerve or deviate from his intentions to get the whole entire world to submit to him or be relieved of their heads and their lives.

For three and a half years he will win favor with amiableness and his charisma, but after that he will rule for another three and a half years, and he will cause human blood to flow upon the earth like no one before him ever has and ever will.

Humanly speaking he will destroy like a machine with great regularity and intensity, and no one will be able to stop him, or prevent him from doing what he wants to or desires to do. He will rule with an iron fist and he will tolerate no opposition whatever. The whole world will fear him but they will adore him because of his devastatingly dedicated policy to eliminate all those who appose him or deny him or work against him or refuse his orders. He will be satanically inspired and possessed and motivated to fulfill Satan's plan with mankind on earth.

He will be worshipped by his ardent followers as a god at first and then as God. They will do it willingly, but those that do it unwillingly will pay the price according to their willingness or reluctance to yield to his demands, to be worshipped as God. Satan and Lucifer will demand this from him and all those around him.

He will not be happy with anyone who resists him and his plans to control the world nor will he be happy with anyone who stands in his way. He will be a master of poise and at no time will he betray his unhappiness, nor will he give the slightest hint of aggravation as he deals with his adversaries.

He will subtly gain one strong hold at a time big or small, he will take them over one at a time and then two at a time, and increasingly as time goes by. Eventually nations will tumble down before him, as he lulls them into sleep, the sleep of unwakefulness. The world's leaders will have so many problems that they will welcome someone who promises them real and proper solutions and who can produce the goods.

The only way that he will be able to produce the goods is to rob the good to give to the evil and this he will do without relenting. Where he can and if it suits his purpose, he will even rob the evil to give to the greater or lesser evil, as long as it is expedient for him to do so. He will pass laws and get laws passed that will exalt and empower him to do this, and he will not flinch to do what he has to do to gain advantages to his cause and that is to rule and take over the whole world and all its people, and to manipulate them to his advantage and to his cause.

He will take what is not rightfully his through cunningly devised laws, motivated by evil but appearing to serve a just cause and he will distribute those things that he takes, to his henchmen and his allies as rewards for their cooperation, their assistance and their allegiance. They will be all for him because he will be all for them or so it will appear to be.

He will not flinch to usurp what is not his so that he can further his diabolical plans and aims and goals. He will move with speed and haste when expedient for him to do so and very slowly when it's not expedient to move fast.

He will be able to make lightning quick decisions on the spot because of Lucifer in him, who is an angel of God fallen from his position as the chief angel just under God, to the chief angel ruler on earth.

He will not receive his instructions from men but from Lucifer himself. Lucifer has big grandiose plans with this man who will delight in listening to Lucifer and obeying his instructions.

He will not flinch to obey Lucifer because Lucifer will win his confidence time and time again, and his decisions will be right, and will be for the material benefit of the Beast as well as the spiritual benefit of the Beast as well. The instructions or directions will not help the Beast as far as his soul is concerned but they will help him as far as his rule on earth is concerned.

No one will be able to question his authority or enlightenment because it will be given as inspiration of Lucifer himself, which is a fallen angel of God, who is indestructible. Only Christ will be able to destroy him at the time appointed for his destruction.

His destruction will be assured and it is certain but only for the time appointed. In the meantime Lucifer will help him to rule the world.

Lucifer wants the world at all and any cost and he's prepared to gamble with his life to get it at any price. That is how Lucifer is; he does what pleases him irrespective of the cost to him or his life. He is very elusive and he is here and there and everywhere in a flash of lightning.

He can move with lightning speed anywhere in the world, and he has hoards of fallen angels, demons, powers and might and many other influences under his control and under his command.

Because he will be in the Man of Sin, the Antichrist and because he has legions of fallen angels and Demonic, Satanic, and Luciferen influences, agents and cohorts at his beck and call, he will easily take over the world because the deceived world will hearken to his voice and instructions emanating from the Beast who will take control of the world.

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END.

SUB CHAPTER 1D: THE BEAST THAT IS AND WAS NOT AND YET IS.

There is a plan that the Devil, Satan and Lucifer have designed which is diabolically clever but also diabolically evil as well. This is his and their plan to deceive the whole world and to bring the whole world under their control and influence and power.

This is the plan to find the man who they can use and manipulate and bring under their control, power and influence and who will carry out whatever they desire of him to do for them and on their behalf.

They need such a man, and once they have him then they will infiltrate his very being so as to take full possession of him, in order for them to manipulate and use and direct him. They have already found such a man and they are busy with him. He is in Syria and he has already given himself over to Satan, Lucifer and the Devil so that he can rule the world.

Christ was on the earth and the Satan, the Devil appeared to Him and tried to tempt Him so that He would serve him, that is the Devil and he promised Him that he would give Him all the Kingdoms of this world if He, that is Christ would do that. Christ Jesus refused him saying it is written, and then He quoted the scriptures.

Satan of course was very angry and humbled and he was also sad because he had lost the opportunity presented him to get Jesus the Christ to accept his offer. If Jesus had accepted his offer then he would have made Him King of this world and He would have given Him all the Kingdoms of the world.

If he had of accepted the Devil's offer the Devil would have entered Him, but as it was, the scripture says the Devil left Him. He remained full of God and the Spirit was in Him and then the Angels of God came to minister to Him.

Satan was furious but he had no choice but to leave Jesus alone, and he decided that he would then form another plan, which he did and that was to kill Jesus at the cross of Calvary so that He would never become King of this world.

Instead of being King of this world Jesus became King of the Jews, but Satan planned to make a mockery of the King of the Jews, which he indeed did by organizing Pilate, the Jews and the Roman centurion to crucify Him. In mock triumph he, that is the Devil, arranged for a sign to be put above Jesus' head. The King of the Jews.

In Satan's eyes he had avenged himself on Jesus for refusing his offer to become King of the world, but in God's eyes Jesus was fulfilling His true mission in a manner that Satan could not ever conceive nor realize nor understand because of the blindness of his eyes, ears and heart and the vanity of his soul.

Satan knew what the scripture said in the Old Testament but he was blinded because of his sin of pride, arrogance and haughtiness and he could not perceive what the true meaning of the scriptures meant.

God knew exactly what he was doing and so did the Holy Spirit and so did Jesus but the Devil was blinded so that he thought he had triumphed over Christ by getting the people to crucify Him and put Him to death.

When He died, He died alone; God had forsaken Him because of the sin of man and the sins of men. God had returned to Heaven to His Throne and that is why Jesus looked up to Heaven and said "My God, My God why hast Thou forsaken me".

When Jesus died He was alone in His death. No one was with Him. There were many around Him but no one was with Him in His death. That was what Satan was hoping for and planning, and to his amazement, he realized that he actually got it right.

Now he believed he was free to do as he pleased on earth. He had no opposition. His opposition Jesus the Son of God was dead. Satan was not so blind as not to recognize that Jesus was indeed the Son of God because he was with Him in the Heaven as the arch Angel of God before He was cast out of Heaven into the earth.

What he did not realize is that God had planned it all, as it was busy happening. Satan believed that he had planned, organized and set it up but he was wrong. God had already ordained it from the foundation of the world and He allowed Satan to organize it and man to do it.

When they buried Christ, that is Jesus, Satan felt happy and contented and overjoyed. He was now in control on the earth and in the world to do what he wanted to do, and that was to find someone to rule the world that would listen to him and do what he required, and that he could live in and control and direct.

Satan does not want to be King of the world in the Spiritual realm only but also on all the realms that are in the human being and so that is why he needs a man to live in on all the platforms of his being.

He is not happy that the Holy Spirit is keeping him in check after Christ ascended into Heaven. If it was not for the check of the Holy Spirit many men in the past could have been the total world Ruler the Antichrist. Hitler tried to be the supreme ruler on earth, many of the Popes tried it, Stalin tried it, Lennon tried it but no one got it right up till now.

This is because the Holy Spirit is keeping everything in check until He that letteth will let, and then will the man of evil be revealed, the Antichrist the Beast, as the sovereign world ruler.

Until that time there is a hold and a check and a stop on him and his revelation as the world ruler. This is by appointment of God, Christ and the Holy Spirit in Heaven.

The problem with the plan of the enemy of man is that he has license to tempt and try people, but he does not have license to lift the hold of the Holy Spirit in this matter, or the stop or the check. Only the Lord can do that.

No one really knows what that saying in the Word of God means or refers to about the Beast being the one who is and yet was not and yet is. Many interpretations have been given to explain this Phenomenon but there is only one right revelation and interpretation.

It is this. The man chosen to be the Beast is an appointed agent of Satan, Lucifer and the Devil at this moment but he is not openly advocated as the Devil's, Satan's and Lucifer's agent but he will be the truly appointed agent of them at his unveiling of the world ruler.

He is already at work in preparation on the earth but he has not been brought out into the open as such, nor has he been given the license to rule in the high places of the earth and in the world, but he will be given the license soon. His rise to fame will be overnight and then he will be the world ruler. There are many world leaders in the earth and in the world at the present time but there is no universal ruler of the world at present.

America is the mightiest nation of the world on all spheres at the moment but they are not in control of the world systems although they have a great influence on it. No nation at the moment is or can be classed as the world Ruler. In fact the battle is on for which nation will be or is the world leading nation but there is no world ruler nation at the moment.

There are many organizations that are world leaders but no organization has attained to world rulership. They are all vying to become it but it has not happened. They are all interdependent of each other and there is a groping and grasping around for each one to become world leader but it is not going to happen until the Antichrist appears as world leader.

At that time he will dominate the world scene and then he will organize and control which land or continent is which or what and which organization is which or what but in the meantime the battle of all the lands, continents and organizations is continuing as each one vies to become world ruler, over all.

No one land, country or organization trusts the other and therefore they are not willing to hand total control to any one land, country or organization.

When he the Antichrist world leader and world ruler arises then they will all be surprised at his sudden appearance and dominance. That will be when the Holy Spirit is taken off the controls and stops and checks He is in control of and then Satan, Lucifer and the Devil will be given the power to move and move they will. They will enter the Antichrist and then he will gain world dominance and world prominence overnight.

The world will be shocked to discover him in place, but they will be glad as well because they will believe that at last some one has the guts and audacity to take over and to control and regulate everything, that could not be controlled or regulated in the world order up till that time that will come upon the earth, at the appointed time arranged by God and put in operation by the Devil, Satan and Lucifer.

The Antichrist himself will be astounded at what he will achieve because it will not be by his own power but he will be motivated and enlightened and spurred on by the Devil, Satan and Lucifer. He will just know what to do because the three entities are the god of this world and they know how to rule and organize their instrument of diabolic evil.

The Beast, the Antichrist is at the moment and yet he is not and yet he is. This is because he is alive and on the earth and he knows his role that he will play in the world affairs and so he is. He is not because he is not in place to rule and he is because he will rule. He knows his destiny more than anyone else on the earth but he does not believe in the Bible and he truly believes that he is not destined to be destroyed by Christ and His elect saints.

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END.

SUB CHAPTER 1E: THE BEAST TIMES HIS PLANS.

The Beast not only believes that he will not be destroyed by Christ and His elect Saints but he also believes that he can time his own take over of the world as its dictator Ruler. He has the vanity of mind and heart and soul to believe this. However both of these things are not true. God has other plans for him and God has His own time that all these things will come into being.

So the Beast's timing is spurious but it is in his power to plan and it is in his power to plan up to the time that is revealed to him. This timing has been handed down to him through the Arabic prophets and has been foretold to a certain date. (This is not true due to calendar errors in the world). The date foretold and the personage of the Antichrist are both separate and only when they come together and the sanction of the Lord God Almighty is given will he come into power.

Because of this he will think to change times and seasons so that he can come into power exactly when he wants and desires to but it will only be in his mind. He will not be surprised that he will come into power but he will be surprised that he will come into power only when God lets him.

He will come into power overnight and this will shock and surprise him when he realizes that his time to take over the rule of the world has come. It will come on him suddenly and it will happen in a moment in time. At this moment in time he will be given the go ahead by God and his way will be open to go with all of his satanic might and power and force.

Remember this it's not the Antichrist of the future that holds his destiny in his own hands, even though he thinks and believes he has, it is in the hands of God in Heaven. The God of Heaven in Heaven will decide the full scope and course of his destiny even though it is Satan, the Devil and Lucifer that will guide and direct his destiny by his choice to let them guide and direct it.

The Devilish trios, Satan, the Devil and Lucifer have plans for him but so have God, Christ and the Holy Spirit. He has his plans as well as a man but he little realizes that he will be caught between the two opposing forces at the time of his destruction and he will deserve what is coming to him.

This revelation is given as a warning to the world and the church in the world that says they belong to Christ, but do not really belong to Him because of their evil deeds, their ignorance or their folly. It is for whosoever will have it as well as a warning of God's impending and eventual judgment upon men and evil in this world.

Anyone with a clear thinking mind, can realize and determine that there is a tremendous amount of evil on the earth, due to the world and its ways and of course the Satanic Trio and their ways and influences on man in the world.

It is clear to see even for the sinner as well as the saint, because of all the rapes, murders, killings, slayings of men and women and children and of babies and even fetuses in their mothers wombs, the highjackings, robberies, heists, wars, commotions and disturbances of and amongst mankind, that the Satanic Trio is busy with their evil works in and with and amongst the inhabitants of the earth.

No one can deny this although millions do. They are blind to the things only because they want to be blind to them. They are so busy with themselves and their things that they dismiss any form of negativity out of their minds. They look after themselves and neglect to care for anyone else.

Even the dying along side them does not worry or deter them from deviating from their own personal course. "Too bad" they say. "I must avoid that" or "Too bad as long as it doesn't happen to me" "I am okay, I am sorry for this poor individual but that is really their problem."

There is no caring or even sharing in these people's lives, they drive themselves and others around them, sometimes and inevitably to the brink of destruction and then they tumble into the devastating forces of darkness or hell or oblivion. These things happen in a moment of time. The time of their own personal calamity or catastrophe or their own personal destruction.

Sometimes they are the cause of their own destruction as for example when a person falls asleep at the wheel of their vehicle due to over work, over driving themselves or sheer pressure of circumstances and sometimes they have others as the cause of their destruction when they are murdered, killed or destroyed by their attackers or adversaries.

No one that is wise will deny this whilst the dumb and stupid deny the existence of these things. They say these things are nonsense or they belittle or deride them until time and chance happen to bring these things their way, and then they wake up to the reality of their predicament, and then they perish with agonized cry of anguish or sometimes without a sound. This is because there is no time to cry out as when a bomb explodes next to them and they are instantly blown to bits.

Any discerning person can agree with these statements because the T.V., radio, newspapers and magazines are full of accounts of these tragedies. Sometimes only one person is involved in these misfortunes but at other times it involves three or four hundred people and at other times it involves thousands and even millions.

In China a flood a few years ago killed 2 million people and as if that was not enough to crown it all poisonous snakes did away with a million more. The earth itself is crying out in groaning and anguish at what is happening on it and to it.

Atomic and Nuclear bombs are shaking the earth due to the nuclear tests, which have and are being conducted on it. Islands have been blown away in these tests and there is no end to the pollution and destruction to the global systems on the earth.

Man is an inherent destroyer or an inherent builder and when the Satanic Trio is involved in their plans then even their building is used for destroying.

All of these things occur at specific times throughout the earth. The word of God declares "Time and circumstances perchance all" and this is very true. A certain circumstance occurring at a certain time can change the history of a nation or the geography of a continent or the character of the world.

Examples of this are: Hitler changed the History of his nation. The Suez Canal changed the geography of Palestine and Internet is busy changing the character of the world.

So it is that the Antichrist will change all of these things when he comes into power. The Satanic Trio will help him and so will the False Prophet and the Beast. The Bible speaks of the first Beast and also of the second Beast.

These three are the Satanically Inspired Trio and will be referred to as such in this revelation. The Satanic Trio is the Devil, Satan and Lucifer and the satanically inspired Trio is the Antichrist, the Beast and the False Prophet.

He will give out that he is the perfect antipathy of the returning Lord Jesus Christ. He will tell everyone that he is the Christ of God that has come back in the flesh. The world will receive and believe him, but the true children of God will not. Anyone knowing the scriptures and receiving them and believing them will not receive and or believe him because they will realize that he did not appear in the clouds of Heaven to come and fetch his own, and he did not come back as quick as a lightning flash to the earth to come and live and reign, and they will realize that he did not return with His elect as the scripture says he will.

They will not believe him or his signs and wonders because they will want evidence of these two occurrences. There are those however that will believe and receive him because of the lying wonders that will take place before him.

He will not appear in the manner that the scriptures teach. He will appear on the world scene overnight and will be announced to the world that he is their new leader, and he will have a following that will immediately join themselves to him, because they are expecting him to arrive on the world scene, not on the clouds of Heaven.

The time of his appearance will be in the early morning at sunrise and on the other side of the world it will be sunset. The scripture records that Christ the real Christ from Heaven, will come in the day in the one side of the world and in the night in the other side of the world.

The Antichrist world Ruler will make his appearance at sunrise and at sunset and that will give his game away to the truly believing. He will not be able to change this because that is the only way that God will arrange his appearance to the world. His timing will not work out as planned it will be set up for him and organized for him.

His plans will not work out according to what he wants but according to what is arranged for him. God's time is not man's time. God could easily have arranged this timing the other way around but that is how God is. He always does the opposite to what man expects and he arranges things opposite to the way they want it.

Keep your eyes peeled for these signs when he comes into power on the world scene. The world will take these signs as the truth that the real Christ has arrived. The world will be pleased to know that it is in the sunrise or sunset time that their supposed savior arrives. This will enhance their belief, and this will cloud their minds over with a veil, that will deceive them in believing him and receiving him as their announced new world leader.

God's timing is perfectly in keeping with His word and He cannot be fooled or shunted around to change His timing. His timing will coincide exactly as the scriptures foretell. He will not arrive in his time but in the Lord's time. He will not arrive in his manner he will arrive in the Lord's manner.

He will succeed in his deception of the world, but it will not be in his timing or in his manner, that he is announced to the world as their new leader.

SUB CHAPTER 1F: THE BEAST LOSES HIS GRIP BUT GAINS A STRONGHOLD.

The world will not understand what is going on in the earth in truth and in reality only the true church of Jesus Christ will understand and know what is going on. The rest will be blinded by Satan, the Devil and Lucifer. The church of Christ in Christ will not only understand what is going on in the earth but will comprehend as well.

Understanding is one thing, comprehension is another. Understanding and comprehension will be given to the true elect of God in Christ. This understanding will not be from man it will be from God. This comprehension will not be from man it will be from God and Christ, and understanding and comprehension will together be given by the Holy Spirit to those for whom it is ordained.

The reason for this is that the veil of Satan, Lucifer and the Devil will be so thick and so heavy that any one under or in it will not be able to understand nor comprehend nor will they be able to understand and comprehend what is really and truly going on.

That which will take place in the world at this time will look like and appear to be the real thing but it will not be the real and true revelation of the true God, Christ and the Holy Spirit and what they are busy with. It will be a paradox. Those that understand will not understand and those that do not understand will understand. This will go for comprehension as well and for understanding and comprehension also.

The wise of the Lord will understand and or comprehend and the foolish of the Satan will not understand and or comprehend. That which looks like it is the real thing will not be and that which looks like it is the false thing will not be.

There will be a transposing of the lie with the truth and the truth with the lie. Christ will be the real and true truth and Satan will be the real and true lie and the Antichrist will represent the last scenario because he will be Satan's man on earth.

The lie will be prevalent but will be presented as the truth. The truth will also be prevalent but will be presented as the lie.

No one that is not really and truly of the Lord Jesus Christ from Heaven will be able to withstand the pressure and persuasion of the lie of the Antichrist. A choice will be made by each individual what he chooses to believe. This will sort out the true from the false like nothing else on earth could. Lives will be at stake and the decision made and the choice made will mean life or death to them.

Those that choose the lie will become the living dead and those that choose the truth will become the dead living. That is God's plan and way of doing things in the time of the end when the Antichrist comes into power.

There will be a falling away of the true children of God who do not take care to remain the true children of God and there will be a turning away from the Devil for those that care for their souls. The one will lose their souls through carelessness and the other will gain their souls through care and concern.

Intellect alone will not suffice because it will need a revelation from God to discern the real state of affairs. The hidden will remain hidden and the apparent will remain open. That which is hidden from the view of man is eternal and that which is open to the view of man is temporal.

That which is gone has come and gone and that which is to come will come and go. That is how God appointed it all from time immemorial. The Beast that is and is not and yet is will realize this as he takes his place in world affairs. That is how God also appointed him and his appearance on the world scene.

From obscurity to world prominence overnight that is how it will take place. He is trying to gain world dominance but it eludes him however it will not elude him at his appointed time. So instead of gaining world prominence he is busy losing his grip and this is happening to him all along the way. Just as he gets underway to come into the limelight he is held back because he loses his grip on things and he gets back to planning and scheming. All the while he is busy gaining a strong hold. It is a little at a time but its increasing his boldness and audacity to take the lead in world affairs when it is presented to him.

Hitler did the same thing. There was one success followed by failure upon another until he came into power. When he came into power his power became absolute as the whole of Germany followed him. There were of course those that did not believe in him and there were those that were unsure.

Those that believed in him followed him, those that did not believe had to stay out of his way and those that were unsure divided up into two groups, one for him and one against him. Those against him were destroyed by him and his schemes and those that were for him were taken under his wing and became a part of him and his workings.

The deluded were truly deluded in spite of their prosperity as Hitler set out to build a new German republic. The undeluded were truly undeluded and were removed from the scene. That is how the Antichrist will work as well but the only difference is that it will be worldwide.

This is not a pleasant scenario for humanity but that is how it is on the earth. The Word of God says that the purer will grow purer and the evil will grow more evil. This will not change the face of things much from what they are now but it will be more intense and more violent and more devastating than things are now.

This is how the Antichrist will operate when he comes into power. His power will be mighty in the beginning of his reign but it will be absolute in the middle of his reign. So whilst it will appear that he is not in absolute control in the beginning, it will appear that he is losing his grip, but it will lead to his gaining a stronghold. People that follow him in the beginning of his reign will not be able to depart from him in the middle of his reign when he reveals his true nature to all.

He will appear to lose his grip in the middle of his reign and then he will come forward with his real and true agenda that the Satanic Trio has been planning up to and leading up to. It will happen overnight as well.

There are a number of surprises waiting for the world. And they will be surprises indeed to them. The only ones that will not be surprised will be the saints of the Most High God who are expecting and will be expecting it all to happen because they are aware of it. It has been foretold in the scriptures the Old and New Testament of the Jewish and Christian Bible.

God has always been true to His nature and character and He always reveals before hand what He is going to do. He revealed Christ coming to earth and being born from a virgin woman. He revealed the ministry and crucifixion, death, burial and resurrection of His Christ the anointed one. He even foretold of His ascension into Heaven. It was all prophesied, predicted and recorded in the Old Testament scriptures by Holy men of God who recorded His words in the Old Testament scriptures.

There are other things foretold, prophesied, predicted and recorded in the Old Testament and verified in the New Testament writings of the apostles. The Old Testament was written by the prophets of God and the New Testament writings were written by the apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ.

So everything of significance that was and is necessary for the world and the people of God to know has been in and is revealed in the Word of God. That which is not written has been and is being revealed by His Holy Spirit to the world and the people of God. Jesus said "He who has ears to hear let him hear". He also said "Not everyone who hears my sayings will receive them." Furthermore He also said "They will receive it to whoever it is given".

The message is to everyone but only those that receive them will receive them, those that will not receive them will not, but in any event the message is for those that have ears and that is everyone and whether they hear or not it will be up to them. God is fair to all men and that is why he wants the gospel preached to all nations of and in the world.

The way of God the Lord Most High is equal and He is fair to all men in all ways. No one that is seeking the truth will be missed out by God. He will in His faithfulness somehow arrange that the message will reach that seeking soul. He says in His Word "Seek and you will find, knock and it will be opened to you, ask and it shall be given to you."

The children of God in Christ need, the children of the world want. There is a difference between these two ways. I need a house, I want ten houses, I need one motorcar, and I want twenty motorcars. I need food; I want so much that I can store it away for ten years. This is not how I think but is just an illustration.

The world desires and lusts after and wants what it wants. The children of the Lord desire and require and need what they need. The first wants it all for themselves. The second needs it all for the Kingdom of God. The world wants, and no matter how much it leads to, it is never satisfied. The children of the Lord's needs are ever before them and these needs are satisfied according to the Lord's bountiful pleasure for them.

When the world's wants are required they have to go out and get them filled by chasing after them. When the children of the Lord's needs need to be met, they are met by The Lord's bountiful provision and it is supplied according to their needs and requirements.

The Antichrist will give the world what it desires and wants, Christ will give his people that which they desire and require and need. There must be a difference between the two systems otherwise man will not be man and God will not be God. Forever man will be man and forever God will be God.

Man will always be beneath God and God will always be above man. There is one exception and that is where God's real true Christ is concerned, but that will be discussed later on in this series of revelations. Suffice it to say at this junction that there is a wonderful full, complete, whole, entire and perfect plan from and for and of God for and to and in man.

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END.

SUB CHAPTER 1G: THE MAN THAT WAS BORN TO BE THE BEAST.

There is a man that is born to be the Beast just as there was a man born to be Christ. There is a destiny for all men and women and children on this earth that is planned out and mapped out for them, and this destiny can not be changed by any means that they can desire or bring into operation, because what they decide will be their destiny on earth.

Some have a destiny with God involved in their lives and have knowledge of God in their lives, whilst others have a destiny with God involved in their lives and do not have knowledge of God in their lives. There is another destiny for others and it is the destiny that Christ the crucified, buried, resurrected, risen, ascended and reigning Lord has ordered, arranged and obtained for them.

Others have a destiny arranged and ordered and given to them by Satan, the Devil and Lucifer the evil Satanic Trio, but it is all overshadowed by God in Heaven, who is the prime motivator and mover of all the universe and all that is in it.

The man born to be the Beast or the Antichrist was not born to be the Beast but that is his own choice. He made it. He will live with it, he will do it and he will be it. That is how it works. He has made the choice of His own destiny and God allowed it and Satan organized it.

In the final analysis of things, and in retrospect after it happens, it will appear that he was born to be the Beast that he turned out to be. It was his own choice that made him that. Hitler made his own choice and he became what his choice made him. He cannot blame anyone but himself. Satan just grabbed what he offered Satan and that was the cause of his infamy.

Satan does this, give him your finger and he takes your hand. The scripture says, "God is not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance." So God's will is not for anyone to choose evil but to choose good. God's Spirit helps man if he is willing to let God's Spirit do it for him.

The Beast will do what he is called to do, but it will not be a calling from Christ or God, it will be a calling from Satan that has called him to follow him (Satan). Satan knows what he wants of the man he has chosen to be the Beast. Satan knows when he is accepted in anyone's life or not. He is not so stupid to not know that. This is because he knows when the door is open or closed upon him in anyone's life or habitat.

God and Christ know who belong to them and so does Satan and Lucifer. In this matter they are not bluffed. Each one knows which domain is theirs and this is also true in the human being.

That is why the word of God says, "Resist the Devil and he will flee from you". Resist him in Jesus name and he will flee from you, give him an open door and he will come in. He will, that is the Devil, gain an entry into any open door that is given him and the Antichrist has left all the doors open for his entry.

Satan wants entry and he will also force an entry if he desires to do so and when he requires to do so and when he needs to do so. That is why we as children of God need to stay under the Blood of the Lamb of God and to keep all our doors under the Blood of the Lamb of God as well.

He will avoid the Blood of Jesus who is the Christ because the Blood of Christ is the Blood of the Lamb of God who was slain for mankind. His Blood was royal blood and it was the Blood of the Son of God who comes from Heaven. The Old Testament in Genesis records that the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, so all men are sons of God through Adam but they are such in their fallen nature. Christ was and is the Son of God and the Son of man in His human and divine nature, but He did not fall to Satan and his devices, He kept Himself free of and from all sin, transgressions or iniquity.

The Antichrist, the Beast will work in the natural and spiritual planes because that is how he will deceive the natural and the spiritual people. The Beast will do lying wonder works in the natural platform, but not only will he do lying wonders in the natural platform, but he will do lying wonders in the spiritual platform as well.

He will know what to do on both of these platforms, because the Satanic Trio will advise him and guide him and will show and reveal to him, what he must and should do in every situation that comes his way. He will do wondrously the scripture teaches us and he will do well what he does. It will not be pleasant to stand before him being his opponent. He will not give way before his opponents he will stand his ground against all comers. He will be a man of courage and will not flinch or deflect from doing what he believes he must do.

He will be merciless and ruthless and he will have the upper hand because he will have Lucifer and his angels behind him. He will receive instructions from Lucifer and Lucifer will instruct his fallen angels to assist the Beast in his deeds.

He will have been influenced and instructed by Lucifer and he will have been trained by Lucifer as well. Lucifer is very cunning and he has lots of experience to deceive people seeing that he has deceived them from the days of Adam up till the present time. No mere human mortal without the help of the Holy Spirit will be able to resist him and his instrument of unrighteous evil and wickedness.

He will be a man with an iron will surrendered to the Satanic Trio and he will not desist from doing what he has to do to gain supremacy over all. He will need no one and yet he will need everybody. No one because he has the Satanic Trio on his side and everybody because he will not nor cannot rule alone.

He cannot fail because he will be given the go ahead by God to do the work he has to do, not because he needed the go ahead, because that he will do anyway but because God will let him go ahead.

If God blocks someone he can do what he will, he will be blocked. If God unblocks someone he will be unblocked even if he tries to resist God. God has the sovereign overriding control, over all humans and over all angels as well, because He is God the supreme ruler of the universe and the earth as well as all Heavens.

No one can withstand God unless God allows him to do so. God has the sovereign right to speak or to remain silent, to act or to stand aside, to do or to desist and this prerogative He always has and always will exercise out to His own discretion and His own will and plan and purpose.

When God stands aside to let man choose and exercise his own freedom of choice which came from God in the first place, then man can choose and do as he wills, however the consequences of his choice and will that he decides to exercise, will inevitably put him in a place where he must bear the consequences of his choice and will.

Because God gives life, the privilege of man to choose and follow his own will is actually controlled by God, who is in charge and command of all things in Heaven and in the earth. So God gives man the privilege and right to choose whose will he will follow and what choices he will make. These choices are freely available to him, and he can do with them what he wills but the price he pays in the consequences of his choice and will, will be borne by him.

God could not allow it to be otherwise, otherwise we would all be robotic control centers, doing the will of God and effecting and working out and acting out His choices without any decision of our own. Can you imagine a world organized and instituted like this. What a mesmerized calamity it will be.

I once saw a young boy hypnotized by another boy and I could not believe what I saw. Every command that the older boy commanded him to do he did with robotic precision. The older boy thought it was funny and so did I until I realized the havoc it was creating in the other boy's life. I eventually brought a stop to the young boys torment by reporting the older boy to the authorities, who then stopped the incident. I felt so guilty that I had partaken in the so-called sport at another's expense.

God loves the creation he has created and the creation that he created as well, and He desires their best welfare; however He does also desire that they will appreciate Him and love Him back. That is His heart's desire.

The Antichrist will choose to be what he will be, and will not be able to resist or avoid the consequences of His own actions, in the choice he has made and or will make. This is because once a choice is made the impetus of the choice carried forward starts to push or pull the one who made the choice.

A choice for Heaven and God or Christ will inevitably lead to Heaven. Heaven will pull the person forward and God or Christ will help the one who made the choice and their choice will push them forward. Heaven will pull or draw them forward and their choice will push them forward. That is how it works.

The opposite happens as well. A choice for the Devil will cause the Devil to push one forward and the pull forward with the help of the Devil will lead to Hell of which the Devil is the Keeper.

Christ is the Keeper of Heaven and the Devil is the Keeper of Hell. So our choices will be helped on by the Keeper of Heaven or the Keeper of Hell. The Antichrist will have the keeper of Hell waiting for him, at the appointed time when Hell will open its mouth to swallow the Beast and all who choose to follow him, and the Devil will also inevitably be cast into Hell by Christ and His followers. This is recorded in the scriptures.

Whenever someone makes a choice for good or evil, there are always those that will follow them and there are those that will stand by, to assist them to go to Heaven or Hell. The Antichrist will be no exception and His followers will follow him to Hell's door but Christ and His followers will cast them in.

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END.

SUB CHAPTER 1H: THE BEAST OF THE SEA AND THE BEAST OF THE LAND.

The world will continue until Christ brings it to an end. He is the only one that can bring it to its end. He died for the world to save it and He lives to destroy it at the time appointed. The world is that composition of man that lives in the world and is of it and who deny God His rightful place in their lives in their being and in their existence.

He is not speaking of the physical world, the earth, although that is also appointed to be destroyed at the time appointed as well.

He is speaking of the world that consists of human beings living in neutrality or and in defiance of God and all that He stands for.

The time has come, although it has always been there before, that man must know that reckoning is required of him and his deeds, by the God of Heaven and earth. This gracious God of Heaven and earth has now decided in these end times that enough is enough, and He is now bringing His plan into operation, to separate evil from good and good from evil.

He has decided to give this revelation in its entirety to the world as a warning of what awaits them. It is for whoever will receive it. Those that are warned, who receive it will decide what they want to do about it all. If they choose right, the good, the holy and the just, the right will follow them and be their lot in this life, and in the world to come life eternal.

The Beast of the sea will arise out of the nations that constitute the multitudes of people within them, and he will control them with an iron fist that will be manifested out in a false peace, that will prevail on the eye level of what people see. He will control the overall circumstances that lead to this peace amongst the nations.

The Beast of the land will arise out of the nations of which he is the head, and he will control the land of the continents with a stretched out arm, that will enable him to have the sovereign say over who gets what and who gets something and who gets nothing.

Like a Pharaoh of old that had the sovereign rights over all of Egypt he will have the sovereign rights of precedence over all others. What he cannot gain by so called peaceful means and peaceful ways although biased and corrupt, he will gain with the means of war on a quick and meaningful and decisive way, and he will take by force what he cannot obtain by peace. He will be feared above all by small and great alike and that is why the scripture says, "They will say who is like unto the Beast who can make war like him."

The reason for this is plain for everyone to see and to grasp, to know and to understand, and it is because he will control the arsenals of the nations falling under his control and his power and might. He will stand for no nonsense and no opposition. The blood of the innocent will mean nothing to him, because he will not care for shedding the blood of his enemies, what he will care for is gain and profit and control.

The Beast of the sea and the Beast of the land will work together, and manpower and the material will in effect be married together, to produce a deadly war machine that will strike with deadly accuracy at the seat of the authority of his opposition. His opposition will crumble as he gains each stronghold that he sets his heart on. It will not work as an escalating war to worldwide proportions but will break out in various places at once. His strategies will be expertly planned on Lucifer's advice. Remember Lucifer can see where angels can see because he is a fallen angel of God.

He will know where to stride because his legions of fallen angels will give him information where the strike will be the most effective. He will not miss his cue and it will be the right one. The armies of the world will admire him for his audacity and his accuracy in knowing and foretelling where his strikes must occur and take place.

It will be a source of astonishment to the world where he gets his knowledge and his information. Man will also do their share in helping him through electronic media such as the Internet and cell telephone technology and other systems that will arise. The last more ingenious than the first.

Technology in chemistry, mechanics and electronics will be so advanced that many of the science fiction movies will be outdated in what is coming on the earth in the time that lies ahead.

The Beast of the sea will have all of these technological advances at his fingertips available for his diabolical plans to be implemented and put into practice. Armies and navies and air forces and even satellite centers will be at his beck and call.

The one thing that will cause him to excel as well as the Beast of the Land will be the technology that they will use, and the other thing will be the ingenious ways and methods that will be used and implemented.

There are many countless thousands of people at work developing secret technologies and technological advances, that are the forerunners of what is going to come, and all these things will be for the use of the Beast of the sea and the Beast of the land and their agents, cohorts and influences that will gather together to assist them in their goals and ideals and aspirations.

There is going to be an explosion of technological advances that will astound the world, and will open the way for things that are now impossible for anyone to do, when the Antichrist is revealed. World wide surveillance systems that are impossible to conceive now will come into being and operation, which will make his job easier and better accomplishable than ever before on this earth.

No one will stand in his way because he will be in command, in charge and in control of these technological advances, that mankind will make available to him to help and assist him in his task, of controlling and subverting the world and their peoples and ranks.

He will have control over the sea and the land and so will the second Beast. The Dictator Beast will control the secular Beast who will control the systems that the first Beast will use to his benefit and prosperity and profit. World domination and world gain will be the motivating desire of the two Beasts. The one will serve the other and they will serve each other with the first Beast in control.

The first Beast will have total dominion over the peoples of the earth, and the second Beast will have dominion under the first Beast, over the systems of the world. Together they will control the lands and assets of the lands and continents.

Everyone on earth will be classified according to four main categories and these are the four categories- Peoples and Nations and Tongues, systems and problems and solutions, lands and continents and countries, and last of all material goods, buildings and assets. Taxes will be existent on these four categories and groups as classified and will vary according to the universal dictates of the time and the decisions of the Antichrist the second Beast.

It must be remembered that as God consists of three in one and Lucifer consists of three in one so the Antichrist, the Beast and the False Prophet will be three in one but only in ideals and in goals and in operations. Because they are human beings they will be three people distinct from each other but they will be one in all things.

There will be no division amongst them nor will there be any difference of opinion amongst them, they will agree as one. Their minds will be one they will be of one mind just as the children of God that are true will be of one heart.

There is a difference between the real and true children of the God and the real and true children of the world. The first one is of one heart and the second one is of one mind. The Antichrist and their systems will be of one mind and the children of God in Christ will be of one heart.

There is a difference. A man's mind and a man's heart are two separate entities. The one is devoid of feelings and the one is full of feelings. The mind devoid of feelings will destroy even those dearest and nearest to them but a heart full of love will protect those dearest and nearest to them.

The heart here is the core of a man's being and the mind referred to here is the state of the mind of a man. The man with an evil mind cannot do good and a man with a good heart cannot do evil. We are not talking about apparent good or apparent evil we are talking of real and true good or evil. There is a difference between the apparent and the real and true.

No one standing with God, Christ and the Holy Spirit in him will really do evil and no one standing with Lucifer, Satan and the Devil in him will really do good. The inherent goodness of the Triune God in Heaven ensures that their followers do good and the inherent evil of the evil Satanic Trio ensures that their followers do evil.

The Beast of the land and the Beast of the sea and the False Prophet will be one with each other in all things and will work together to gain control of the whole world and what pertains to it. They will be at perfect oneness with each other as perfect in oneness as man can achieve it.

They will raise up standards in six of the areas of world domination namely: morality, military, monetary, political, legal and religious systems. All of these areas will be under their control and domination and the standards they set up will be enforced and will be law throughout the world. No one will lightly disobey these laws because there will come a time that to do that will only occur on pain of death.

People will flee or try to flee from these laws but will not be able to do so. Many will escape but only for a time and then they will succumb to their destiny, or they will be delivered from their destiny, by the True Christ of God and the Holy Spirit of the Lord to their Heavenly destiny.

These standards will be biased towards the ungodly principals that will execute evil and cast down good. There will be a twisting of truth into a lie and the lie into the truth. However the lie in God's eyes will be the lie and the truth in God's eyes will be the truth.

Only in a man's mind will the lie appear as the truth and the truth as the lie. The elect of God in Christ will know and practice the truth and the elect of the Devil will believe and follow the lie.

Remember this, the Beast of the sea and the Beast of the land and the False Prophet will be practicers and perpetrators of the lie and the servants of the Most High God in Heaven and the followers of the true Christ in Heaven will practice and perpetrate the truth.

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END.

SUB CHAPTER 11: THE BEAST RAISES HIS STANDARDS.

The Beast will have his own standards by which he will work and operate and do things. He will set the standards that suite him and his plan for world domination. All things are fully into place for this to happen, and when it happens the world will not have it, but will be ready to receive it from his hand.

He will not stumble over the way things were he will organize things the way he wants it. He will have no regard for the values of the past. He will set up new values and raise new standards.

The world will accept these values and standards because they will think and believe that it is the way of progress in the time frame of man's existence.

The lie will appear to be the truth and people will love the lie for the license it gives them and will give them to do as they please within the apparently peaceable framework of the Antichrist's rules and regulations. He will make his own rules and he will make his own regulations and he will make his own decisions as well.

The lie will prosper as the truth gets thrown down to the ground. He will usurp the identity of the real Christ, but it will be in his mind, and not in actual fact. He will usurp the identity of Christ the Savior of the World and he will usurp his place in so far as the world is concerned but he will not in actual fact be able to usurp Christ or His identity, because Christ in Heaven will remain Christ in Heaven and His identity as the Son of God and the Son of man, will remain with Him in Heaven where He is and where He belongs.

So everything that the Antichrist does will be an imitation of the real and true and whole and complete and perfect. That is how Satan, Lucifer and the Devil are, they usurp the real and true identity of the real and true Christ, and they imitate Him and what He is and what He is not.

God, Christ and the Holy Spirit have already set up their standards in the earth and these standards and values are available to whosoever will. It is for all men and women and children on this earth and it is available freely to whosoever it is revealed.

The gospel of Christ, which is the gospel of the Kingdom of God and of Christ, is available on the earth and it is evident for all those that are seeking it. "God has chosen the invisible things from the foundation of the earth to confound the things that are". The scriptures of the Christian Bible teach us that.

There is a Bible of the false Christ that has already been written by him and his and it is different to and from the true Bible of the true Christian faith. The Bible of the Antichrist has all the rudiments of what Lucifer wants him to propagate and it is being circulated around the world at the present time. God in Heaven is countermanning this bible, the Antichrist bible, with this word of truth from the throne of God in Heaven given by oracles from and of God.

God is faithful to His own and He is faithful to the creation that He created and the creatures He created on the earth. Man alone has the ability to comprehend and understand and grasp the news from God's throne concerning His true gospel, the gospel of the real and true Christ the Son of God and the Son of man who is in Heaven at the moment waiting until "God makes His enemies His footstool".

No one can condemn the true gospel of Christ without falling prey to it. The blessing to those that believe the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ will come to those that believe and those that don't will be condemned by it.

The true Christian Bible and the true Word of God contains God's laws of grace, mercy and love as well as hope and faith for mankind and all else is merely the product of man's iniquity. This revelation does not in any way replace the Bible or the Word of God; it merely expounds what God is saying to the world in His Word in simple everyday language.

Nothing can replace God's Word nor can anything be added to it. God does however allow the expounding of His Word, which proceeds and comes forth from the Scriptures.

The Beast's standards that he will raise up will constitute the standard he expects from the whole world. All will be subject to it and no one will be exempt. His standard that he will raise will be Lucifern in content and will leave the truth that is real out of reckoning.

The truth of the Lord of Heaven and earth is contained in the Word of God in the Christian Bible and it is confirmed in the spirits of those that belong to Him. The anointing of the Spirit of God confirms the Word of God that it is true and this is what the Word of God says will happen. Jesus said it will happen, the apostle Paul said it will happen and so do all the prophets of the Lord.

Paul's writings confirmed what Jesus taught when He was on earth. His, that is Paul's writings, expounded in full detail what Jesus said and it was all confirmed and is confirmed by the Spirit of the Lord, the Holy Spirit and the Spirit of Truth, that comes from and proceeds forth from the Father God in Heaven and from Christ the Son of God and the Son of man, seated on the right hand of God in Heaven.

The Antichrist's bible contains his standard and his values and it also contains his doctrine. His doctrine is actually a doctrine from Lucifer, Satan and the Devil. It is against the true children of the Lord of all.

Satan cannot wait for the time to reveal his false Christ to the world, because then he will be in control of the world, which is what he desires and wants. Many of the standards that will make up the one standard of the Antichrist are in operation in various countries of the world. Some here and some there and a few here and a lot there but it has to be like that, because he will take all the things that are already in place, and will add to them and will expand them and alter and renew them as the occasion arises and lends itself to this practice.

The issues are changing in the world and so are the approaches to these issues. Mankind will always have issues that are basic to them, but the very issues have real and true basic issues to them, and these will be ignored and they will be avoided, so that the secondary issues can be twisted or distorted and violated around, according to the aims and dictates of the Beast's Kingdom on earth.

Manipulation of every sort and description will be the order of the day. When wicked and evil men are in control then it can only be expected that evil will prevail. Evil men produce evil and wicked men produce wickedness. That is how it works and the same can be said for the righteous. Righteous men produce righteousness and holy men produce holiness.

Unjust men produce unjustness and just men produce justice. The dividing line between these two are in operation at the present time but it is not clear-cut. When the Antichrist starts to rule there will be instituted a clear-cut line of control that will separate the real good from the real evil.

This is actually from the Antichrist in origin but in the prime instance the origin of the allowance will be from God. Not the god that the Antichrist will give out that he is but from the True God of Heaven and earth.

The issues will be divided and classified into two issues. The one is from the Antichrist, and will involve earthly laws and ordinances and the other one will be from Christ in Heaven, and will involve Heavenly laws and ordinances. The choice will belong to man whom they will obey.

The one standard will be evil and of evil origin, the originator being the Satanic Trio and the other standard will be good and of good origin, the originator being God, Christ and the Holy Spirit. The choice of which standard to follow will belong to man themselves.

The first three and a half years of the Antichrist's reign, will allow for the nations to choose their own or the Antichrist standard, but pressure will be exerted on them behind the scene to comply. The second three and a half years will allow for no nation to evade the standard of the Antichrist. Force in the open will be the order of the day.

The underhanded force and pressure of the first three and a half years will be replaced with openly enforced force and pressure in the next three and a half years.

The standard raised by the Antichrist being optional but enforced underhandedly in the first three and a half years will become deadlock law in the following three and a half years and all will be forced to submit or die.

This is when the Beast will show his true colors and this is when the world will awake with a shock but it will be too late. The forces that were previously allowed as wanted by the world will take over unwanted by the same people, but their choice will have been made, with no recourse to reverse their decision.

They will not be able to topple the momentum of the Beast in power and will either submit or be destroyed. This is when the Mark of the Beast will be compulsory and no one will be able to buy or sell save having the Mark of the Beast on their right hand or in their forehead.

The Mark of the Beast will already be in operation and people will be able to choose to take it or leave it on the surface of things but pressures and forces will be at work to get people to go for it even though on a voluntary basis.

The pressures will be so great, as small and great go for the Mark that those that do not want or desire it, will be forced to decide in their own private choice whether to take it or not. Those that do not take it by their own choice will find the pressures unbearable around them as small and great do take the Mark.

This is the pre election phase for the righteous of God and of Christ who will be very careful not to take the Mark into their bodies or on their bodies. The Mark will be a universal standard that the Beast of the sea and the Beast of the land will raise together and it will be the standard that will prevail. It will encompass the sea and the land and it will be for the benefit or detriment of mankind depending on whose side they will be on, the Antichrist's side or the real True Christ.

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END.

SUB CHAPTER 1J: THE BEAST WILL REVEAL HIS PLAN TO THE WORLD.

The Beast is not alone in his plans; he is assisted by the Satanic angelic Trio, Satan, Lucifer and the Devil. He knows that his time to be revealed is near at hand and he is busy with his plans. The Satanic angelic Trio is also busy with him at present to assist him with his plans.

The plans he is busy with are all being laid in secret, but there will come a time when they will burst into the open, and that is when he will reveal them to the world.

The world does not know about his plans but he does and he will not disclose them to anyone until the time is ripe. Only when the time is ripe will he come out into the open.

No one is acquainted with the plans that come around in his mind. His mind is full of plans and he meditates on them day and night, day in and day out. He cannot reveal them to anyone, nor can he talk to anyone about them.

The day is coming when the whole world will know about them as he brings them into the light of day, not all at once, but just as and when they are needed, and just as and when they will be required, and just as and when they will help and assist his cause.

He is sworn to secrecy by the satanic angelic Trio who will opt in for him in the hour that he is to be revealed as the New World Leader.

No one will know what is in his mind or in his heart except himself and the angelic Satanic Trio.

There is a reason for this and the reason is this, he is scared and they are scared that rich and powerful men and influential leaders will cause him to be annihilated and killed and or destroyed, because they will see him as a threat to them and their positions.

As and when the correct day arrives for him to be revealed to the world and as the New World Leader, then all things will be in place to promote him into his powerful position, and then it will be too late for anyone to stop his forward progress and momentum to become what he is destined to be and that is the Antichrist, the Beast of the sea.

Revelation in the Christian Bible has been so designed by God and His Spirit that it is written in a form that is clothed in a mystery. Part of the mystery is very clear and part of it is not so clear and part of it is a true mystery to man, who cannot comprehend it with their natural, or fleshy or carnal minds.

This is because God, Christ and the Holy Spirit holds the key to all these mysteries and only when the time is ripe for them to be revealed and opened up, will they be understood clearly and at the same time they will be evident as well to all who can discern the times and the seasons.

God has got His plans as well and they are revealed to the world and the church of the Lord in part so as to allow men to realize that He, God is in control, in charge and in command. God's plan is revealed in the Christian Bible consisting of the Old and the New Testament covenants of God to His chosen people and whosoever will hear, listen, understand and comprehend.

God's plan is already revealed in the Christian Bible for all to grasp it if they will diligently search and inquire into His plan.

Satan's plan is also revealed in the Antichrist's Bible that has also gone out into the world, but the Antichrist has not revealed his plan to the world as of yet, because he dare not.

God has had his agents and instruments through which He had the Christian Bible recorded and compiled, and He used various men known as scribes to record the messages of His Prophets and Messengers and to get them put into the Bible form, and to be translated by learned scholars over the centuries.

Satan has also had his agents and instruments through which he has had the Antichrist's Bible to be recorded and compiled and he has had his people that were inspired by him to do this work.

As Christ came to fulfill the Christian Scriptures as the Son of God so the Antichrist will come to fulfill Satan's bible predictions. As Christ the Son of God did His work on earth for three years so the Antichrist will do his work for seven years and it will also be done on the earth.

Two periods of three and a half years each are predicted for his reign on earth as the false Christ, the Antichrist, and the Beast.

When Christ came two thousand years ago and when He was born on earth through the Virgin Mary He fulfilled His course on the earth, and He fulfilled that which was written of Him and He did that which was required of Him by God.

So it will be of the Antichrist, he will fulfill that which is written of Him, in the Christian Bible and in the Satan's bible. He will do what is written of him and only then will he reveal his plans or his gospel you may say.

This gospel of the Antichrist will be passed onto the world, and will be propagated throughout the earth in a very short space of time, because of modern technology and modern technological advances. Almost everything is in place to do it.

Satellite communication systems working on a global coverage together with Internet and cellular telephone systems will speed up the propagation of the Satanic Antichrist gospel around the world in record time.

No one will be able to stop it and no one will be able to thwart its propagation on a worldwide scale in a very short time. The speed with which it will fill the world will be phenomenal to say the least.

Television on a global basis is another means to speed it up. International news and magazine networks will publish it across the world in hours instead of thousands of years.

The Antichrist will reveal his plans and it will flash across from one continent to another in matters of seconds.

This is the modern day miracle of worldwide communication coverage. It is in place but there are more technological advances coming that will shock the world with their pinpoint accuracy and precision and speed.

Computers are coming and are already in the process of being used, that will astound the world, as to their efficiency and storage and processing capabilities.

It is all mapped out for the Antichrist to establish himself on a global basis overnight as the New Leader of the World. All it needs is to get it all focused to the point of fulfillment of both the Christian Bible and also the Satanic bible concerning him and his appearance as the World Leader.

Christ has revealed His plan to whosoever will listen and hear and heed it and take it to heart. The Antichrist will reveal his plan to the world and it will be on a compulsory mandated system that he has designed and that he and his diabolical counterparts, the second Beast and the False Prophet will put into practice together.

As the world tunes into international events such as the Olympics, the world cup rugby and the coronation of Kings so the world will tune into the unveiling of their New World Leader, the supposedly wonderful but actually diabolical False Christ the Antichrist

CHAPTER 1: THE TIME OF THE END.

SUB CHAPTER 1K: THE BEAST RISES TO THE OCCASION.

There will be a time when the time is ready for the Beast to rise up to the occasion to which he has been called, chosen and elected by the enemy to take his place in world affairs. It will not be easy for him to carry the load or burden that he himself has chosen to bear, but it will be easy with the help of the angelic Satanic Trio in him, and because he is surrendered to them he will feel at ease in their presence.

No one will be able to stop him when his time comes around because that will be his hour to rise up to the occasion presented and given to him. He will not flinch in his task and duty that he believes that he has been called to do.

He wants it because that is what he desires and that is to be world ruler and as soon as he can he will be what he wants to become. He will stoop to low things to get what he wants and he will not flinch in his duty to put his diabolical plan into operation.

As he rises up to meet the challenge he will be assisted by the angelic Satanic Trio and he will not be resisted by the Holy Spirit of God because the Holy Spirit of God will withdraw from withholding or and resisting him.

It is the prayers of the saints of the Most High God and the Holy Spirit of the Lord that is keeping him from coming into power at the present time but it will not always be so.

Many souls and people will come to know the real and True Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Savior before that day and many will become His Bride elect. Their souls will be added to the Bride elect as they are elected by Christ the Son of God. Jesus Christ the Lord of all is busy choosing His Bride and His Bride is busy preparing herself to be ready when Christ comes back to fetch Her. She will be ready without any spot or wrinkle or any such thing. Her Bridal attire will be ready and she will put it on at the time appointed.

No one can tell when the day or the hour for the Bridegroom's return to collect His Bride will be, but it will be at the time appointed by God in Heaven, and it will not be a moment too soon nor a moment too late.

The Beast and his future followers who are expecting him to appear will also be ready to take over under his charge. They will willingly follow Him and they will be glad to do his bidding. No one that is not expecting him will be able to know that he is the Beast and they will not know what they are letting themselves into by accepting him and following him and doing what he requires of them.

He, that is the Beast will rise up and take full advantage of the opportunity presented to him to lead the world as their World Leader. He will fully gloat over his wonderful success in gaining the position as Leader of the World and its peoples, its lands and its wealth.

No one will resist him and what he is busy with as he will follow his mind and his heart and the angelic Satanic Trio will give him scope and license to do as he pleases. His charisma will enhance his acceptance and so will his abilities and prowess, and his I.Q. will be an asset to him. He will have a fine mind and a cunning mind and he will be able to make immediate lightning fast decisions. All his decisions will be biased to his own slanted views and values and he will work with devilish cunning and camouflage his true intentions in all his decisions.

Deceived people are easy to deceive further and this he will pounce on so that they will be knocked off their feet by his cunning and cleverness and ability to make the right decisions at the right time. He will just know it and when he doesn't know, Lucifer will whisper in his ear, do this or do that. He will have no restraint so he will do what his heart desires, and he will be accepted for his brilliance and ability to make the right decisions, to accomplish the right results that fits into his plans.

He will not fail nor disappoint those whom he deceives because they will be blinded by his charisma and charm and affability and powers. Great wealth and splendor will surround him and being a man of courage he will be admired and also feared. His enemies will be afraid of him because they will realize that he wields so much power and influence that he can have them annihilated or removed or dispatched with a flick of his fingers.

When he rises up he will really and truly rise up and it will not be in a small way it will be in a mighty way that he will conduct himself.

Everything and everybody around him will be at his command and he will be in charge and he will be in absolute control not only of the situation but also of the people that surround him. There will be those that will be at his beck and call and he and all those will be feared because of their loyalty to their powerful leader.

He will summon any one of his aids and he will whisper some instruction or command and the aid will disappear and go and carry out his wishes. The unnerving actions will cause a deep consternation to those in front of him because they will not know what instructions he has given and their fear and awe of him will cause them to quickly concede to his wishes.

He will be so powerful when he rises up that one command or instruction will have or could have the effect of total destruction of the people in front him or could also have a wonderful benefit for them. At any rate he will always keep his opponents guessing as to what he is busy with. No one will dare ask him what he is doing because his word will be law. Total law. His courage will be total and his diabolical audacity will leave his opponents speechless before him.

He will not bow down to protocol unless it is his protocol and he will not listen to advice unless it suits him. He will not ask for advice unless he needs it and he will not flinch to decide on any issue even if he is opposed.

Opposition will wane as people see the awesome power of decision he has and they will realize that he will not flinch in carrying out what his heart desires.

The more power a man has and the more ruthless he is the more people will fear him, and he, the Antichrist will be such a man. He will make hearts tremble with his audacity calmly presented in simple but no uncertain terms. He will coldly stare at his opposition and whilst they are talking he will call for an aid and whisper something in his ear and the speaker will be so unnerved that he will curtail his speech in favor of the dictator's wishes or what he believes is the dictator's wishes.

Most men, even the most courageous will be able to carry on with their attack or defense in what they believe when there is open communication, but even the most courageous flinch, when there is closed communication and a bypass is given to some aid and the aid disappears from view to carry out the command.

This simple act will undermine the most ardent eloquent orators or champions of the good cause. This is because it leaves room for suspicion and suspicion erodes away the courage of the orators. This is a small part of his arsenal of cunning.

For instance if you are oratoring and championing a cause, and the one to whom you are speaking to picks up a revolver and turns it around his finger and then puts it down on the table, pointing it at you in front of your supposed mentor, can you imagine what the effect to the person championing the cause will be.

Or if you are talking about your cause and the dictator suddenly calls for two heavily armed men to come and stand at his side for no apparent reason with guns drawn ready and staring at you. You will be uneasy and unnerved because you will think that he can just as easily tell them to gun you down in front of the dictator.

This is the type of cunning he will employ. It is psychological intimidation and only the most assured and courageous man will speak his mind and not refrain from withholding what he would have easily stated or said under normal circumstances.

This is the type of power play that he will bring into being that will intimidate the most avid speaker or reasoner. He that is the Beast will hold the power key in his hand and he will not be afraid to use it when necessary.

Every occasion will have its scenarios of power play and what could not be persuaded by normal means will be persuaded by abnormal means. Every occasion when confronted by opposition will have its own display of power persuasion and remember it will be assisted by angelic Beings who have no love of mankind at all.

He will not betray one hairbreadth of uncertainty or fear in his charismatic smile or on his brow or on his face or in his eyes. He will be fearless and he will be fearlessly evil and when necessary it will exude from him.

CHAPTER 2. THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2A: THE WORLD AND ITS PURPOSE.

The world has been designed by God to do God's bidding but it refuses to do God's bidding. It does its own bidding and acts on its own accord. Ultimately in the whole scheme of things it is in fact doing God's bidding because everything is of God, for God and from God.

What it's not doing is doing the bidding of God in Christ Jesus the Lord. That it is not doing, and the reason for that is because it does not recognize Christ as their Leader, nor will it ever until Christ returns the third time to establish His and God's Kingdom on the earth in the one thousand year millennial reign where He will be the Ruler of the earth, after Satan and the Antichrist have been removed from the scene.

The world is not alone in not being able to do the bidding of God. There is the satanic angelic trio that is also not willing to do God's bidding on earth or in the world. So apart from man exercising their own will upon earth in the world and the world system, the satanic angelic trio are also involved in doing their own will in the world and in the world system as well.

These things are all allowed by God but are of concern to Him in the Prime instance and order of things as He is pushed one side and not taken into consideration. This is an affront to His power, omnipotence and might and glory and honor as well. But He holds His peace until it suits Him to act or speak or to do.

When He does this people hastily make way for Him and so does the satanic angelic trio, because who can resist God when He decides to move, act or intervene. No one not even all of the fallen angels can resist when He rises up to His strange and wonderful act or deed or motion.

When He acts or comes into motion even the mountains and seas and Heavens react in awesome display of subjection, submission and surrender to Him. Life and Death of all creation submit, subject and surrender to Him and nothing and no one can resist. When death occurs nothing can change it except Him. Man can prevent life when it occurs but man cannot stop death when it occurs.

Man cannot stop Tidal waves, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, colliding planets or asteroids etc. Only God can stop these things if He wants to.

God's Power and Might is truly awesome when it gets underway, and nothing can stop it or resist its effects when God allows it or condones it. That man can do with His help. People have been raised from the dead, limbs lost in humans have been replaced anew and organs damaged or destroyed and even missing have been created and or healed or cured. However all these things are with God's help and agency and license and intervention for and on behalf of man.

God is the Supreme Ruler of all the Universe and all the world and even the earth, and what He says and does goes, unless He gives allowance or license for it to be otherwise.

No one will believe that God can do what He says will be done, and that is that the Antichrist will arise out of the earth and that Christ and His followers will destroy him, at the time for his destruction to take place.

He, the Antichrist will be so mighty and powerful and he will claim that he is God and he will also claim that he is the Messiah and Christ, and the world will see his deeds and will believe him to be God on earth and Christ on earth and the Messiah on earth, but he will come to his end and none shall help him.

When he comes to his end he will look around for someone to help him and no one can or will be able to help him. He will die his death alone and so will his helpers die their death alone in the fires of Hell that will burn for ever and ever.

The world had its beginning and so did the earth. The earth had its beginning when God created it in antiquity past and the world had its beginning when God drove out Adam and Eve out of the Garden of Eden. When we speak of the world we speak of the people or the earth that are in rebellion towards God or refuse to hearken or do what He requires or says of them.

The world through the centuries had its own standards, it has its own standards today and it will have its own standards tomorrow or in the future.

The world loves its own standards and it also desires that everyone conform to these standards. Their standards are their standards and these standards are a combined average result of what has worked for them in the past and what works for them today and what will work for them in the future.

The Antichrist on the other hand will change the standard of the world to suit himself and his purposes. His purposes and the world's purposes will clash from time to time and through cunning and craft he will change them to suit himself and what he desires the world to do.

Hitler did that by first appearing to work with the masses in Germany and then winning their confidence by presenting his plan of a united Germany working and laboring together for the good of the Nation. Once he had gotten them to eat out of his hand and to do his bidding and after they saw the results he produced which were extensive, to say the least, he suddenly turned around and started organizing his mistakes and channeling them into what he wanted and that was to conquer and rule the whole world.

He plunged Germany and the world around them into a devastating war that caused havoc in the world on a scale never before conceived. His brilliant organization in peace brought about devastation for the world because of his folly.

The Antichrist will be no better for three and a half years, he will build and organize and control the world, and then he will reveal another side of himself that will shock the world and its inhabitants.

Man in his natural state can not rule the world especially if it is one man who holds the reigns. His base nature is the cause of this state of affairs. When they start building there are certain directions that they of necessity must move in so as to gain the desired results. Once these directions are put into practice there are certain actions they must take and the actions they take will produce the desired results.

Then corrections must be applied and if properly and adequate and effectively applied then the desired results will be obtained. Once the desired results are obtained then maintenance of them must be accomplished.

This is where it should not go wrong but it is this place that causes one of two things to happen. Either a further uplift will follow or a decline will take place. The structures built up in the good years will then push everything forward, and if there are the right decisions that will be taken, then the whole base stabilized will be added upon and so increase will result and further progress will take place.

On the other hand if in the middle of the term wrong decisions are made, then the whole thing starts to degenerate into a downward spiral of chaos and devastation, and if the wrong decisions are made further a total chaos results. That is what happened to Hitler and Germany.

Now in the case of the Antichrist who is and will be controlled by the Satanic trio is in control of the world, can you imagine the final actions and consequences to the world, the earth and its people, when in the next three and a half years the Satanic trio who are destruction orientated in their beings, push the world dictator into doing what they want next, and that is to be solely in control of the world and the earth and its people.

Destruction, desolation and calamity on a scale never before witnessed or seen on this earth will follow. The calamity, destruction and devastation will be so great that even the Heavens will rebel and cause its portion of devastation, destruction and calamity to descend on the inhabitants of the earth. Go and read it in Revelation of the Christian Bible. You will find it there.

This will all happen as a result of the Antichrist's work on earth together with the satanic angelic trio's coercion. They will cause it and God will allow it but men will not blame the Antichrist or the angelic satanic trio but will blame God Himself and the inhabitants of Heaven.

Now is this not strange seeing that the Antichrist will say that he is God. He will blaspheme the True God in Heaven and he will suffer the consequences of his own folly and the consequences of the folly of his leaders.

God did not design it this way, men wanted it this way and God is going to let men have their way not partially but in full, and He will watch as man gets what he deserves for forsaking the one true God in Heaven and neglecting the Truth for the lie of Satan. Man will receive the result of his doings.

CHAPTER 2: THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2B: GOD HAS A PLAN FOR THE WORLD.

The plan of God for the world was a beautiful plan. It was a plan for men and women and the animals to live together in peace and harmony, together on the earth in the earth paradise that God had put man into. His plan was thwarted by the Devil in the Garden of Eden who tempted Eve and who then tempted Adam to disobey God's commandments.

There was only one commandment and that was that "They must not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil", because God said "In that day if they did they would surely die."

Well we know the story and what the consequences of their disobedience was. They ate of it and so death passed onto them and to all men.

So God's first Plan was good, and the second plan was also good because God was in control of it, but man having been given the ability to choose between good and evil, continuously made good things bad.

That is how man is and always will be unless they return to God and follow and accept and keep to His ways. He has a way for man to go but it is up to man to accept and follow and keep the Lord's way and to forsake their own way.

The Devil, Satan and Lucifer are still trying to deceive mankind and they are succeeding greatly because man refuses to let God have His way in their lives and their affairs.

God's plan is still the best plan for mankind and God's way is still the best way for mankind and God's will is still the best will for mankind.

Man does not and will not seek the will, plan and purpose of God for their lives. Only His true children that seek to please Him do. Whoever man seeks to please that is who he will please. Whether it is man he seeks to please or God or the Devil, whoever he seeks to please that is whom he will please. It is not in man's heart to please others without pleasing himself first.

Only when God's ways or the Lord's ways are in man, will he seek to please God or the Lord. Man in the world seeks to please himself in the world. Man in God seeks to please himself in God and man in the Devil seeks to please himself in the Devil.

Only when true repentance takes place in their hearts will man truly try to please God or the Lord and not himself.

This is how it works and it cannot be otherwise. Only a slave under whip and lash will seek to please his master in spite of himself. This is because he is under bondage to the one with the whip and the lash.

Love is God's way for mankind because God is love and love is of God and when love is in us then God's nature is in us. When love is in us then God is in us and when God is in us then love is perfected in us. This love that is perfected in us is God's love revealed by, through and in Christ towards us and we show faith and love towards others.

Because man has floundered in his Adamic Nature he seeks to please himself. This is not good enough for God that is why He made and prepared a way for fallen man, so that he can come back to God, come into God and be with and for God as well.

God knows man's frame that it is but dirt and God knows that man needs to know this. Man does not realize this as the normal course and pursuit of his life. He sees people dying around him and he likes to believe that somehow he will escape this. If he realizes that he can't escape it then he deludes himself into thinking that he can put off death until it is truly time for him to die in old age.

Unfortunately this is not always the case because their lives are cut short in catastrophes, calamities, accidents and illnesses and in some cases other people murder them and so they lose their lives prematurely.

This is all in God's natural plan for the world and its peoples, but there is a spiritual plan of God for the world and its peoples, if they will know it and have it. God loves the souls He created and they are in fact His jewels. When they serve and please God then they are His precious Jewels.

There is a difference between a man's jewels and his precious jewels. The first, he is happy with them but the second, he is pleased with them. To be happy with someone and to be pleased with someone are two different things.

There is of course the opposite where a man can be unhappy with his jewels and he can be displeased with them as well. The same applies to God. He is unhappy with His jewels and or He is displeased with His jewels when they have lost favor with Him and or when they have lost grace with Him.

God is going to give man over to the Antichrist and to his rule and this is because He is unhappy and or displeased with His jewels. No man will give the jewel that he is happy with or pleased with, away to another, but when he is unhappy with them or displeased with them then he will easily do that.

The Antichrist will take those jewels that God is unhappy or displeased with and he will just add them to his treasury of jewels. To him a jewel is a jewel and it will just be added to his collection of jewels. The quality does not matter, what matters is his collection of jewels, that he can hand out as rewards to others who do his bidding.

Any quality of jewel can satisfy his greed that he has to gain, so his lesser jewels he will give out to lesser people and the better quality jewels he will give out to greater people and so on.

The Antichrist will not think twice to give out people to others that can achieve his aims and purposes.

No one will be safe near the Antichrist or far away from him as well, because people will be his commodity of trade to enslave his treasury of goods and finance and assets, that he can give out to his henchmen throughout the world to do his bidding.

God's plan for the world is good whilst the Antichrist's plan for the world is evil. The scripture says "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him will not perish but have everlasting life."

The Devil's plan for the world is to destroy mankind because he does not want to go to Hell alone. He believes he can escape Hell but he also knows his time is short as the scripture says.

The Devil's plan is to rule the world, so that he can control and regulate men to do his bidding, which is evil and contorted and distorted and corrupt and wicked and vile and contemptible and dastardly and cowardly.

An evil man can not produce good and nor can an evil angelic being produce good. That is how it is and that is what it is made of, evil produces evil and good produces good.

No one that is evil can bring forth food out of his evil treasure, the treasure of his heart. No one that is good can bring forth evil out of the good treasure of his heart. What is in a man's heart will come (out of his heart) and of his mouth. This is what Jesus said in the Word of God in the Christian Bible.

God will bring forth good out of the good plan of His heart that He has purposed with the earth and its inhabitants. The Devil will bring forth evil out of the evil of his heart towards the earth and its inhabitants.

Man will receive what he asks and seeks and knocks on the door for. If he asks for and seeks and knocks for good he will receive exactly what he requires from the Lord. If he asks and seeks and knocks on the door for evil he will receive exactly what he requests from the Devil.

God has a plan for the world but so has the Devil. God's plan for the world includes Christ whom the world in general rejects and the Devil's plan for the world includes the Antichrist whom the world in general will receive.

The world cannot produce good out of its evil treasures of its heart, and that is a pity because the only thing that is worthwhile and lasts, is good. The everlasting good that comes from Christ the Son of God is the exact thing that God wishes for the world, if they will have it and or receive it when He said in the Word of God, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him will not perish but will have everlasting life."

Only Christ the True Son of God, the True Son of man from Heaven gives everlasting life and it comes from God, by, through and in Him and this is the plan of God for the world if they will love Him but they won't unless they will.

CHAPTER 2: THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2C: THE WORLD CANNOT FAIL FOR IT IS DESIGNED TO SUCCEED.

The world is designed by itself to succeed. This is because of the way it conducts its affairs. Its affairs are conducted in such a way that success is its aim, its goal and its purpose. It is motivated for success and not for failure. Its aim, its goal and its purposes are success motivated. It is out to win and to win at all costs. No matter what the project is it is designed, originated and set up to come out on top in a successful venture and a successful conclusion.

It makes no difference whether it is economics, politics, military or religion. The main aim, goal and purpose are success targeted. Failure is unacceptable to it. To win and to win at all costs is the aim, goal and purpose of the world and its projects. Everything is researched and designed and engineered and structured for success and not for failure.

Failures do happen and failures do occur and failures do come about. Sometimes the failures are due to bad design, bad engineering, bad organization and bad structuring and it sometimes comes about by unforeseen calamities, crisis and or catastrophes of many varied natures and kinds but in any event it happens due to sometimes foreseen and sometimes unforeseen occurrences,

Some of these occurrences can be prevented or forecast or foretold but on the other hand some of them cannot be prevented, forecast or foretold.

Failures do occur and they do occur on small and on large scales or magnitudes but by and large successes are more prominent and or evident than failures.

The world plans its plans and plans its ways and plans its means accordingly so as to ensure success. It utilizes its assets and its finances and its materials to bring about successful solutions to man's needs.

Nothing or very little of this is done for God who lives and reigns and rules in Heaven. The little that is done for Him is done in such a way as to bring the glory to men and not to God.

Now God looks on mankind as an outsider, and not as one who made and fashioned and loves men, but as an intruder in men's affairs. This whole scenario is wrong and allows for a fatal flaw to exist in everything the world does for itself and for them.

Man considers themselves as the prime motivator in all that they do and accomplish and they walk off with the glory patting themselves on their or each others backs. It is not even considered or thought of or mentioned to give the glory to the God of Heaven who gave them life in the first place or in the prime instance.

This is how it is and will always be unless God intervenes and intervenes He does and will from time to time to alter the course and flow of world thinking and world opinion.

Man rules himself and lives out his own life as he wills and no one can swerve him from his course even if his course is deflected by some unknown or unseen or unrecognised or undefined force.

When this happens man merely changes direction and carries on regardless. This is also not wrong in itself but again no credit is given to God nor is any recognition given to Him.

Man takes the credit and the recognition when things go right but usually blames the God of Heaven when things go wrong.

This is how man is, no glory to God when He deserves it and is deserving of it. He is vain glorious and gives no credit to God when He should receive the credit and no recognition towards God when He in fact should be recognized in all things. Only the blame goes to Him that is all He receives and is accredited for when things go wrong.

Have you ever heard someone saying "Why is God doing this or why has God done this or that to me or my family or this nation or this nationality?" If our ears are tuned in to hear properly we will hear these complaints going on around us all the time.

Actually these notions and insights are wrong. They are wrongly motivated and wrongly originated and are an affront to God in Heaven because He is being wrongly blamed for everything. The actual ones to be blamed in reality are those ones who neglect to hear or listen to God and who neglect to recognize Him in their affairs and or in their lives.

The way of the world is to take the glory for themselves or itself when things go right and to blame someone else, in fact anybody else when things go wrong. It is the exception rather than the rule for the world to take its blame and admit or confess to its blame. It is only when things come to the bottom of matters in absolute deterioration when there is no other way of escape or there is no one else to blame that people admit and own up to their faults or failings or weaknesses or error of judgment.

This is a pity but that is how it is and in fact that is how it will always be taking into account the basic nature of man and what he is and how he reacts to these things. It is only when man listens to his conscience and obeys his conscience that he will own up when things go wrong and admits where his blame is or lies. No one that suppresses his conscience can own up to his faults, failing and weaknesses and to his errors of judgment.

Responsible people whether an ordinary citizen or the President of a country can hope to rule well or live righteously if they do not walk according to the dictatates of their consciences. Consciences are not infallible however, because what a man is brought up to believe in, will affect his conscience. If he is brought up as a heathen or as a pagan what he believes in will affect his conscience but only to the extent of what is right and wrong in his faith but there is a built in factor in man's conscience and it is this. He will basically know the difference between right and wrong unless he has poisoned or seared his conscience. In this case right will become wrong to him and wrong will become right. When this happens the one whose conscience has been poisoned or seared will not be able to discern between right and wrong.

This problem exists in the world on a massive scale and that is why the world runs and operates according to the dictates of their consciences, whether correct, poisoned or seared. This leaves the world in a state of questionable values with questionable ethics and questionable balances.

The world goes on blundering on its course of destiny with no way of discerning what is truly right and what is truly wrong. In the earlier days in the western world at least the laws of the land were based on the Christian Bible as its source; nowadays the laws of the land are based on non ethical conveniences and expedience.

This will allow the world to succeed in what it is busy with and indeed it cannot fail to succeed in what it is busy with because it is designed to succeed. Men will cause it to succeed and succeed and succeed until it ultimately and inevitably fails not because it wants to fail but because failure creeps up on it as stealthily as a snake that stalks its prey and then makes a lightning fast lunge to capture its prey and to paralyze it and then to devour it.

Satan, the Devil and Lucifer are waiting for their chance. Their chance to pounce upon the world is coming and it is coming shortly.

CHAPTER 2. THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2D. THE WORLD ANNOUNCES ITS DICTATOR.

The world has come to a place where it needs someone to rule it. There are so many factors, ethnic groups, nationalities and people of all lands that are part of the global community and their difference of opinions, manner and way of working requires that some universal ruler arise to organize, control and lead them and get them to walk and program and plan together. Every organization, body or land require a leader to lead them and direct them and show them the way to go. That's how it is, that's how it will always be. Someone must lead the top, to take control and to govern and command what direction and what aim's and goals to follow and pursue.

Now there has arisen a true global community and it is time for its leader to appear. The leader of the global community will have to be someone that's capable and that can do it. So far no one has come on to the scene that can do it. The leaders of the different countries are vying against each other to become the true world leader but it is not happening because of other leaders refusing to bow down to any one nation's leader.

Up till now no one is really trustworthy enough for all to submit and follow him, but there is going to arise someone who will get it right. Whenever there is a need that arises in any body or land or country then there will arise and come to the forefront someone who is willing, able and capable to do the job.

The global community is no exception and they are on the lookout for that someone. The post is vacant at present because there is no one that can foot the bill and there is no one that can hold the post and there is no one that can predominate and come to the top to fill the post.

Countries in the global community are shaping up in such a way that the necessity for this post to be fulfilled is gaining speed. The countries are aware of this but no one can foot the bill so far.

Suspicion and mistrust are the order of the day amongst the organizations that are trying to do this task and there is no such leader amongst their ranks and so the top post remains unfulfilled and vacant.

However there will arise shortly a man who will be favored by all to fill this part and that is the Antichrist. He will not call himself that but he will be that in his heart. He will curry favor with the world and the world will somehow start to trust and believe him.

Their desperate need for the part to be fulfilled will allow them to give him the chance to prove himself. Any one that is given the chance to prove himself will then either succeed or fail. He will succeed because he is Satan's man chosen by Satan and subservient to him and he will succeed because of Satan's help and the help of all Satan's forces building up in the people of the world.

Satan in the people of the world will assist Satan in the world dictator and therefore the people will agree to him becoming their leader. Once he is in control then Satan will inspire him to give the people what they want and this he will do but there will be a price tag attached to them getting what they want. This is the problem, Satan will give people what they want, but there is a price tag attached to what they receive from him.

When Satan gives someone something the price is seldom mentioned but it is there and either it will be agreed upon in front of what Satan gives or it will be exacted later

The Devil worshippers either enter into a covenant or an agreement with Satan or they present themselves to the Satan for his use. The first one will be negotiated by Satan and his worshippers and the second one will be exacted from his worshippers by him at some time in the future.

The Antichrist will be no exception, he has already covenanted and agreed with Satan for what he wants from him and Satan has already agreed to give it to him. There's a price tag on both sides and agreement is about to be achieved between them. This will happen shortly and then Satan's masterpiece of deception will once and for all cause men to go really wrong. Man went wrong in the Garden of Eden when they decided to disobey God and listen to Satan the Devil and so man was punished by God. Now Satan managed to take this deceived man and to get him to convert his soul with and for in Satan so that Satan can use him to rule the world.

Satan will win favor with men, not because of men's disobedience to God but because of God's allowance of men to become deceived because God is tired of men's disobedience. In effect God is withdrawing from those who clearly do not want or desire to listen to Him and he is letting them have what they desire to have.

Satan will be their master and their ruler and they will have all of him instead of just a portion. That will be their undoing in the end but they are not concerned with and about that, they are concerned with "Now of the now" that demands some form of action and some form of government that will appeal to all men in the majority and that will be accepted of all men in the majority.

America was the accredited and accepted leader of the world but that is changing and now America's popularity as undisputed world leader is waning and fading and there are other contenders such as China, Russia vying to become world leaders. Russia is doing this in a subtle and deceiving manner and China is doing it by capturing world markets in low price goods that the world is snapping up because of convenient profit. Taiwan did the same thing and they become powerful economically in the world. Now China is busy doing the same thing. China is big and it has its own resources, so it is a real threat to the world. Its labor sources are without end and once money comes into the country to uplift the economy, then the labor resources are utilized in abundance and this generates wealth in abundance.

Russia has problems with finances but they have resourceful cunning in their people and in their policies so they are becoming a menace to the world as the communistic leaders to take up places of prominence where the cunning and avarice can grow and be fed. Their people faithful to their ideals are rising to prominence in the world. Their influence is phenomenal and their cunning and deceitfulness are a treacherous presence in the midst of the nations of the world.

What they do not have in integrity they make up with their lies and their cunning and their undermining tactics that can cripple nations and can cause chaos amongst nations whenever they want to and whenever it suits them and their cause.

Their face and what they are and what they appear to be, are two different things and this is the insidious problem facing the world and its countries. The whole world virtually has this problem and everyone in it is part of the solution if they will be, but they will not be, because they do not want to.

Even many so called children of God so called have the same problem. What they appear to be in the front is not what they are behind. They say one thing and do another, they do not mean what they say, and they do not say what they mean. They are two-faced and they have double standard values. One for themselves and another for others.

This is a subtle ruse of the enemy in man but God is going to put them to the test to see what is in their hearts. He knows what is in their hearts but because mankind are all free agents, God allows them to come to testing so that the contents and intents of their hearts may be manifest in that which they do.

The Antichrist that will come is the instrument of the Devil used by God and the Devil to prove on whose side the man is. There is however one very great and large act of grace from God and Christ and the Holy Spirit and that is to allow men to make their good and proper and free choice to serve God, Christ and the Holy Spirit of their own free will without coercion from any one. Christ, God and the Holy Spirit will call people to come to Him to follow Him and to love and serve him if they will. The call is from the Lord but the choice is up to the individual, millions in the earth have made and are making their choice and millions more will make their free will choice, now until Christ returns as the Son of man on the clouds of Heaven to collect his Bride, and the bridal party unto himself, to attend the wedding in Heaven in earnest and in verity and reality and the marriage feast of the Bridegroom.

The world will choose it's dictator and once it does that, it will then announce him and the world will assist him because he will be of the world and the world love it's own. Unfortunately he will also be of the Devil. His good side will prevail from time to time and his bad side will predominate from time to time. His good side will prevail but it will be of the world and his bad side will predominate but it will be of the enemy of mankind, the Devil, Satan and Lucifer. Woe unto the world and woe unto men as well. Go and read it in the book of Revelation in the Christian Bible. Not the watered down distorted story books that are supposed to be the Word of God, but the real and true scriptures that are indeed the Word of God as revealed by His Holy Spirit, and revealed by his true recorders chosen from amongst the people, each in their time.

The world will make its choice and to them it will be the right choice but to men in general it will be a faulty and wrong choice and blood will flow on the earth worse than it has flowed in all of history past in their times in any given period of time.

The world will announce their dictator and rejoicing in the world will take place on a gigantic scale because never before in all of history has someone had control over the whole world. The real say will be his but as he continuous the world will have reason to regret their choice, especially as God pours out His wrath on a world of people that have rejected Him as their God, and have accepted a man as God sitting in the Lord's temple and saying that he is God.

From that moment on God will pour out His wrath on the people and then their free choice to accept Him or not to accept Him will be punished from Heaven or will give rise to the shedding of their blood. Go and read it in the true scripture of the only wise God in Heaven given to men.

CHAPTER 2. THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2 E. THE WORLD AND THE DICTATOR WORK TOGETHER.

The world longs for a man to take control of all the main issues facing it in these last days or times. The world is troubled and perplexed about the future in the world. They see the troubles and turmoil and chaos increasing in the world systems, and they are going on inevitably in spite of all these things, because they have no other alternative.

There is another option and there is another alternative and that is to let God, Christ and the Holy Spirit take over the control of their affairs but that is not what they desire or want. They are not concerned with their eternal destiny in and out of Heaven or Hell. They want to remain in control of their own destinies and they are looking for a world leader to guide them and lead them and control them towards, for and in their destinies.

They are not concerned with their eternal destiny in and out of Heaven or Hell. They are concerned about their destinies in the temporal sphere of their lives. They realize that all people die sooner or later and all they are concerned with is their natural and physical well being, affluence, wealth, fame and or prestige.

These are the things that count for them and of course they want and desire to prolong their lives as long as possible. This is due to their survival instinct and they will do it at the expense of anyone or everyone around them.

Their motive is self determination, selfishness and self aggrandizement. They are not worried about others around them. Their only worry and concern is how can they use others at the minimum expense to themselves and to the benefit of themselves.

This is how the world system operates and this is how it is run and organized. Self gain to the maximum with self expense to the minimum. Material comforts such as luxurious houses or apartments, luxury cars and a luxurious style of living in every facet of their lives.

Whilst pursuing these things they are not concerned about the poor needy people of the world in the real sense of the word. They allay their consciences by donating to the cause of the poor and needy but this is really to them another way of avoiding taxes. They would rather give a portion away to the poor than give it to the tax man.

If they gave it all to the tax man instead of the poor their conscience would batter them and so they allay their consciences by giving a portion to the poor and needy through various charitable organizations. In this way they can enjoy the luxurious comforts of their style of living and they do not give another thought for the poor and needy around them.

Everything they do is convenience motivated naturally in favor and biased heavily towards their own convenience. They have a win win system that is organized, centered and orientated around them winning what is theirs and then winning what should belong to others.

It is a flesh centered self willed system and way of doing things and it grasps and takes what it wants at the expense of anyone who is unwary or unwatchful or ignorant.

They lend hoping to receive a handsome profit and then they grab what is not theirs as the poor unfortunate victim goes under because of the weight of his obligations to them who placed them under obligation in the first place because of what they loaned to him.

The world is wallowing around in debt or otherwise they are floating around in debt free enterprises that absorb the wealth of those wallowing around in debt.

There are three levels of people in the world. The have nots, the want alls and the take alls.

Each one of these levels has their own story to tell. Each one of them is a story on its own and each one of them has a price that they pay on any one of these levels.

The price that each pay varies but it is a price that is not worth paying even though they believe that it is worth paying to them. Everything that they do and or are busy with, extracts or exacts or demands a price from them and in the end of their lives the cost of the price catches up with them and then they realize that the vanity of what they were busy with was the cost of the price they paid.

Anyone living in the vanity of what they are busy with will be disappointed in the end, when their life is called up before God and by God, who is the giver of life and the taker of life as well in the prime instance. All men on the earth go through this process, which is to be born into this world, live on the earth and die on the earth. This is not wrong because that is how it is. And that is how God created it and made it to be, the only thing that is wrong is what men do with their lives if God is left out of the picture and out of their lives.

Now that is wrong but there is another wrong and that is the wrong that is done in men themselves when they not only leave God out of their lives, but they also actively work against Him in their lives of avarice, selfishness and greed.

There are three basic groups in man as well in this regard and they are those with God, those without God and those against God, the bible groups them as such, the godly, the sinners and the ungodly. Go and read it in the Christian bible.

God is love the scripture declares and God caters for all of these whilst they are on the earth, if they will have it. The godly are the repentant towards God; the ungodly are the unrepentant towards God and His ways.

For thousands of years God has revealed Himself to people that He has chosen to bring His message to man whom He created and they have proclaimed His message to those around them. The godly repented the ungodly did not repent. The sinners' went merrily on their way without realizing what they were doing in their ignorance.

However all men have a conscience and that will accuse or excuse them in the day that God judges the world by Jesus Christ the Son of God who is the Son of man.

The world is made up of the sinners and the ungodly and the church of the Lord Jesus Christ is made up of the godly that believe in and accept God and Him whom He sent to die for them.

In the time ahead the world will work with the Antichrist and the church will work with Christ. The dictator of the world the Antichrist will persuade the world to work with him.

The church of the Christ the Son of God, the Son of man will be drawn into Him and they will willingly work with Christ and His Holy Spirit and the Spirit of God and of the Lord.

God is allowing this to bring the godly to repentance and the ungodly to unrepentance. The sinner will have to make his choice for or against the Lord or for or against the Antichrist. In so doing they will become either the godly or the ungodly.

CHAPTER 2. THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2 F. THE WORLD HAS FOUND ITS MAN OF THE HOUR.

There will come a time that the world will find its man of the hour. This time is busy coming up; it is on its way and will not be a hundred years from now. It is just around the corner and it will surprise the world even though the world is looking for this man, the man that will personally take the lead for the affairs of the whole world.

He will be qualified to take the post and to take the lead and he will be assisted by the angelic satanic trio, the Satan, the Devil and Lucifer and that will qualify him further to give the world what it wants to receive.

He will not shrink in his duty but will do it with everything that he has in him, both good and bad but it will be done according to his worldly standards and it will be done to the standards of the ungodly of the world.

His leaning will be to the ungodly and not with the godly. His favor will be with the ungodly and not to the godly.

The godly will have favor with the God of Heaven and those that are His in Heaven. God Christ and the Holy Spirit will favor the godly and will succor and or protect them in their hour of need.

There is a snare of the enemy coming on all men and towards all men on the earth, this is what the bible teaches and it is a snare of the enemy of mankind, Lucifer himself and his own. This snare is the snare of the Antichrist and it will come upon the whole earth. Only those that are watching and praying will escape from its death grip. Those that are watching and praying are those that belong to God, Christ and the Holy Spirit and who are a part of them and who are in them. They are a part of each other and they belong to each other as well.

The man that the world will appoint as their man of the hour to lead and guide and direct their affairs will be the one that is appointed and received and accepted to be their leader. He will have the right credentials to fill the post and he will have something else to back him up and that is his destiny.

He will flirt with the world so that he may win the world's favor and once that is gained nothing will stop him, until the hour of his personal final destiny arrives, and then he will be stopped and taken and cast into the lake of fire by Christ and his followers. He will be cast alive into the lake of fire that burns with brimstone and his followers will likewise be cast therein with him.

His final hour will be his decisive hour, but he will not stand, because it is appointed by the God of Heaven for him to fail eventually at his appointed and allotted time. He will not know how to cope with the final situation where he is taken and confronted with the one who was his worst enemy that is Christ.

Christ and the Antichrist are enemies to each other. The scriptures say "What concord has Christ with Belial or what fellowship has light with darkness" this means that the true followers of Christ will have no fellowship with the followers of the Antichrist.

This means that a state of war will exist between them. Each one will be abhorrent to the other. No true follower of Christ the Son of God can ever have real and true fellowship with the followers of Antichrist. These true followers cannot mix; it is like oil and water that cannot mix.

The state of war will at first be underground and then it will be open. It will be a spiritual battle at first but will then turn into a natural battle later on. Many followers of the Lord will fight for their lives in this natural battle but many of the followers of the Lord will allow their lives to be taken from them for the sake of their Lord.

The forces of darkness will always abhor the light and the light will abhor the forces of darkness. This is so in the spiritual and it is so in the natural as well. The spiritual battle will be conducted by spiritual means and the natural battle will be conducted by natural means.

The Antichrist will be admired by the world and all his followers but will be loathed by the children of the Lord. The true children of the Lord will not be deceived by the Antichrist nor by his cohorts, nor will they be deceived by his systems.

The world will honor its man of the hour because they will believe in him. The children of the Lord that are true to the Lord and His ways will not honor the world's man of the hour but will honor the Lord, the God of Heaven and His Son the Lord Jesus Christ. No price will be too much for them to pay including the loss of their lives.

The scripture says that they will not love their own lives even unto death but will love their savior, redeemer and deliverer more than their own lives. They will gladly lay down their lives in the temporal realm in order to gain their lives in the eternal realm.

The hypocrites will falter at the test when it comes for them to lay down their lives for the Lord's sake and will renegade on Christ and will succumb to the Beast's worship in order to save their lives.

The Word of God says of these that will remain faithful to the Lord "And they loved not their lives unto death", and the Word of God says to the faithful, "Be faithful unto death and I will give you the crown of life."

The world's man of the hour will only be a man of the hour because he will be cast into Hell with the false prophet forever. He will be the world's man of the hour on earth but will be Hell's man for eternity.

The world will choose and elect to follow its man of the hour and will also follow him into Hell forever. I would rather be in torment for one hour than to be in torment forever in Hell. How about you? Come to Jesus now and be with Him forever in Heaven even if you have to face your one hour of trial on earth.

The world will not let go of their man of the hour once they have found him. They will follow him to death if necessary, but will find that their offering up of themselves, for him will be in vain, for the cost to them will be an eternal cost and an eternal loss as well. Jesus said "What does it profit a man if he should gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

The world does not value their souls, they only value their bodies and when it comes to the push they will lose their own souls just in order to save their bodies. God's ways are opposite to man's ways when it comes to the crux of matters.

The world's man of the hour will be just like that as well. He will live for the now, no matter what the cost to him hereafter.

You need to make your choice now, Christ the true Christ of Heaven for the now and the hereafter or the Antichrist the false Christ of Satan, the Devil and Lucifer for the hereafter.

The one leads upwards towards Heaven and the other leads downwards towards Hell. No one can have them both. It is the one or the other. People live for Hell now and hope to go to Heaven then. That is not possible. The bible the true Word of God says "The way the tree falls that is the way it will lie." Meaning it is what it is and it is not what it is not."

Dear friend you need to change your course if you are on the wrong one and you need to do it now. Later may be too late. Your only guarantee that you will be on the safe side if you die is now while you have the chance. Putting your decision off now may cost you your soul later on.

The only safe moment is right now while you are reading this and you can make your decision now for Christ against the Antichrist that is coming soon.

CHAPTER 2. THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2G. THE WORLD WILL CHANGE ITS COURSE.

The world is very set on its course at the present time. Things have been organized to suit itself and those in control. Everything has been organized to yield the maximum results with the minimum effort on the part of those in control around them and in their sphere of operation. It is the way things are and it is the way that things are heading as well. There is coming a time when the world will change its course and it will be when the Antichrist comes into power as the world ruler and as the world leader. He will bring in totally new concepts that will revolutionize the world and the way it thinks and acts.

No one will understand this but that is how it will work out. From antiquity the world system has operated on the system of a money medium which is used to buy and sell everything. Right throughout the world this system operates. Money is the means of ease of exchange of ownership of goods and services. They use contracts to set out terms of change of ownership but money is the medium of exchange.

The Antichrist together with the modern technology will eliminate money as the means of exchange and will institute a new system of debits and credits that will surprise the world how easy it will operate. There will be a key to the system and that will be a unique number placed in the right hand or in the forehead of each person belonging to the system.

Buying and selling or trading will only be allowed between members that have this key mark in them. It will be the mark of the Beast or the 666 system. One system for all the world. Money will not be there; only trading units.

The Antichrist and the false prophet will set the common value to the trading units and the computers will be used to record all transitions. Cash money will disappear and trading units will replace money. These trading units and computers will be used to record all transactions. These trading units will be common throughout the world and they will have common values throughout the world.

He will organize, institute and perform the economic miracle that will transform the world's fiscal policies and financial systems and will cause the world to wonder after the Beast or the Antichrist. He will perform the economical miracle that will bring the world under one system with one currency value instead of a couple of hundred as at present.

One currency value will speed up and enhance trading intercontinentally and will bring about speed of handling and ease of calculating. It will be a simplified system causing ease of control and controlling measures. For example take the matter of inches and millimeters. When working between these two mediums of measurement there has to be an intermediate step of recalculating to convert the one to the other. This complicates the recording process when using the mediums. The world has more or less standardized on the metric systems and this simplifies everything.

Time measurement is another bane because of the hours and minutes system as apposed to the newer system of the twenty four hundred hour system. The second Beast will endeavor to change the times and seasons to a new system completely. He will not get it right but he will get the recording method of the times and seasons changed to a newer system. This will all be apparent of his brilliance to provide solutions.

The world will recognize his brilliance and will succumb to his methods and will welcome them because of the ease of operation. This will speed up trade and interchange of products, goods and services throughout the world. This in turn will boost their credibility in the eyes of the world.

Everything will go their way and everything will prosper because of these changes to simplify interaction and intercorrespondance and intercommunication between nations. Nations will understand each other better with unilateral systems that will suit everyone in the nations willing to abide by them.

Not one of these unilateral systems will be wrong in themselves but they will be coupled to a system that will be wrong in the eyes of God. That is the 666 mark of the Beast systems.

All of present systems will make it easy for the mark of the Beast system to function. That which is beneficial to the world will be their undoing as well because of the flaw in man that desires simplicity but admires audacity as well.

The Beast will be the most audacious person that ever lived on the earth besides Lucifer, the Satan and the Devil who are the most audacious of all the beings created by God.

They will be in the Beast, the Antichrist, the false prophet and all they stand for and believe in and practice. They will be the antipathies of evil in a good form because that is how Lucifer presents himself.

He is the good evil being and he cannot change himself because he will not change and he will not change because he does not want to change. He has set his heart on the good evil that he lives out and lives on.

The freemasons are an example of his style of operation; the Christian scientists are another example of his style of modus operandi. There are countless others as well, but suffice it to say, he will receive his damnation in the end and so will they.

The Antichrist, the Beast and the False Prophet will all likewise receive their damnation when Christ the Lord of Heaven and earth comes back to earth, to secure their damnation and to bring it into effect and into reality and into practice.

Lucifer will not change but will change the world through the evil trio, his henchmen. No one can stop this, it will happen and come to pass and it will inevitably take place on this earth in the world.

So the world is destined to change its course. It has changed its course countless numbers of times in the history past of itself but it is destined to change course as never before on a global basis which will include all countries, lands and peoples of the earth except those that refuse to be included.

Those countries and lands and peoples that refuse to be included will be dealt with by the Satanic Trio and will either succumb or pay the penalty, which will be death.

The world will change but there will be on the earth those that refuse to change and who will refuse to accept the marking system. They will accept all the other changes except the marking system on their bodies and the worship of the Beast as God.

These countries, lands and people will have their own allegiance to the Lord God of Heaven and His Christ the true Lord of all. Everyone else will succumb to the Beast or be killed. Even those that have their allegiance to God, Christ and the Holy Spirit will be killed because of their refusal to submit to the marking system, however Christ will intervene on the clouds of Heaven to receive His own unto Himself and that will save them forever from the terrors of the Hell that awaits Lucifer and his own.

CHAPTER 2. THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2H. THE WORLD GOES BANKRUPT.

There is a time in the past that the world hit a depression when the countries went bankrupt. It was a hard and difficult time for everybody. Bankruptcy can occur where debt is prevalent. That is the reason for bankruptcy. As soon as the deficit becomes greater than the surplus then bankruptcy is inevitable. This is the reason that people, lands and continents go bankrupt.

The world loves the debt system because it can gain what is not theirs in the first place. The world gives out in debt expecting payments to come back in to cover the principal debt plus interest. This is all very well until the principal debtor too far in debt and then as he bankrupts out everyone grabs what they can get hold of. The first in scores usually and the last in loses.

The amount of debt written off in the world system is phenomenal and yet the banks make a profit and that is why the debt situation prevails in many countries of the world. The wiser ones are on a cash basis.

Inevitably in spite of the above, debt is somewhere involved and in spite of precautions taken there occurs a domino effect somewhere down the line and it ends up in the cash strong countries.

Bankruptcies always have a domino effect, as one principal crashes, so do others depending on how big the first crash is and how closely they are tied together in the debt trap.

The only safe policy is a cash transaction policy where the deal is done on a debt free system.

The world in general does not run on a debt free system. The reason for this is that it is easier and cheaper to use other people's money in the prime instance on the installment plan.

This is how the world system works and it works well if everyone obeys the cardinal rules and that is to have enough cash equity income to cover the debts on the installment system. Man however being what he is and full of greed and covetous, goes and breaks the cardinal rules, and overburdens themselves. This happens on a small scale with the individual at the bottom but also happens on a large scale with countries and governments at the top.

When the top collapses due to bankruptcy the domino effect spreads out in all directions and cannot be checked until it expends itself.

Sometimes it expends itself relatively close to home but it can expand to places hundreds of thousands of miles away from home where it expends itself.

This is devastating to say the least, to all concerned and involved in the debt crash due to the domino effect, started higher up and ended up goodness knows where. Governments in the world today in lands and continents are doddering on the brink of collapse. The leading dominoes are already beginning to move towards the nearest dominoes and they are dangerously unstable throughout the world.

There is a gamble in the leading dominoes that is inherently fatal and it will take a relatively small knock or incident to cause a world wide domino crash.

No one can easily predict where the domino crash can start. There are watches being set up to try and calculate the risk of this ever happening, but it is a risky business as someone just passing by the chief dominoes can knock them, and then the domino effect will do the rest.

Have you ever seen someone laboriously setting up a large chain of dominoes and whilst still building on the chain, some passer by comes and touches one domino to just set it straight, and then have accidentally set off the dominoes.

That is what is going to happen to the world scene shortly. Someone will unexpectedly come onto the scene of the world and will touch one domino to just set it right and the whole domino chain will go down.

World finances are tottering on the brink of collapse. America is overburdened with the dollar value that is surcharged with a debt system that is overburdened with too much money and too little intrinsic value in the money because of overtrading and too much debt in the background.

One innocent knock on the system could set the dominoes rolling. In fact one innocent knock on the world monetary system could cause a domino crash. What about a cool calculated knock that can come from somewhere to set the domino chain going.

America has many enemies and so has each land. Someone with a knowing knock can rock the whole world monetary system. This will not be easy but it can and will happen. That is when the master of ingenuity will arise to avert a fiscal calamity over the entire world.

He will block the domino effect by introducing a new system that will isolate the domino effect by a clever scheme that no one has thought, about and if they have thought about it they could not get it going because of lack of opportunity, and of course because it is not the right time to set it up.

The world will go bankrupt. It must happen and happen it will. Some innocent bystander will push the chief domino by accident, and the result will reverberate throughout the world, as the domino effect takes a hold of the systems of the world.

Someone will have to stop it before it destroys everything and the master builder will stop it. I am not talking about Christ the Son of God. I am talking about the Antichrist the Beast of the sea spoken of in Revelation in the Christian bible.

He will come in at a time when the dominoes are rolling over against each other. He will stop it. Have you seen also that when the dominoes on the table are rolling on, it is not easy to stop the action even if one tries to remove one domino further down the line? The only way to stop it is to neatly and carefully remove a number of dominoes or to start the flow backwards to meet the oncoming falling domino chain.

One must be careful when doing this not to bump or disturb the dominoes in front of the break otherwise the domino action starts up once again in a different direction forward.

The Antichrist will put his hand in at just the right spots at the right time and the right manner to stop the total collapse of the domino system. This will give him credibility in the eyes of the world and he will prove his ingenuity to the world and they will acclaim him as the master of the world systems.

So the world is on its way to bankruptcy and the dominoes are all set up throughout the world but there are dominoes still being placed by the powers that be. The powers that be will not cause the dominoes to roll over but they can at any time cause them to roll over.

It will be some insignificant incident that will cause the roll over and it will be by some insignificant people that it will occur.

The world is building and it is building carefully, or so it believes. They are building carefully according to the knowledge in the world system available to them and the dominoes are being set up in their places and they are carefully and strategically placed by the powers that be on earth but the inherent danger is ever present that the domino rollover will occur.

When this happens, however it happened, it will mean disaster for the world system and unless someone or some power intervenes to curtail it, the world will see a depression like it has never seen before in all its history.

Someone will stop it and it will not be God but it will be Satan, Lucifer and the Devil that will use the man of the hour, set up by them in him that will stop it.

God will stop something else later on and that is to stop the world from destroying the earth and the people of the earth. He will send Christ the Son of Man from Heaven in Heaven to stop the earth from being destroyed and all its people.

This will be at His third coming or the second coming to and on the earth. The first one was two thousand years ago and the second coming will be on the clouds of Heaven, to collect His Bride and the Bridal Party, and He will not alight upon the earth. The third one will be when He returns with all His saints and alights on the Mount of Olives.

He left the earth and ascended from the Mount of Olives. He left when the time was ripe and He will return when the time is fully ripe. No one stopped Him from leaving the earth and no one will be able to stop Him when He returns to earth.

CHAPTER 2. THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2 I. THE BANKRUPT SYSTEM IN ACTION.

The world will alter its course of action shortly because of the partially bankruptness of the world's trading partners due to deficits in the balance of payments between certain countries.

The bigger the debt and the bigger the deficit, the nearer to complete bankruptcy the involved countries are. This is commonly known as "The writing is on the wall." When this takes place frantic efforts are made and plans and schemes are put in place to avert the oncoming disaster.

Sometimes the last ditch efforts and measures work but in many cases they do not and that means the demise of that country's economy and sometimes even the country itself. The other countries pull strings to save the situation but that is only if they stand to lose with the country's demise or if they stand to gain.

This is the crux of the benevolence, not charity. It is given out as charity to the media and the world but the underlying strategy is based on saving themselves or gaining them advantage. The world system is geared up this way so nothing else can be expected from them.

This is the way things are. Virtually no one in the world gives charity for the sake of charity and with a true charitable motive. There is always some underlying catch, advantage or benefit that they can receive themselves. Charity for the sake of love is rare and is the exception rather than the rule.

Bankruptcy in the world almost guarantees the vultures to swoop down on the bankrupt to scavenge for themselves what is available for the taking. Gain in the world is by profit, legitimate or otherwise, by robbing legitimate or otherwise, by bankruptcy advantage legitimate or otherwise. This is how it works and it will not stop. The rich take advantage of the poor and enrich themselves further by this advantage whilst the poor are left more destitute than ever. Nothing is ever done by gain with love but rather gain by advantage or expediency.

What a sick and sorry plight for the human race. Maneuvering for advantage or expediency replaces love with love for gain. To gain love is better than the love of gain. The love of gain is in no way comparable to the gain of love which is Christ's way on earth.

There would not be any advantage for the true child of God over the child of the world if love of gain ruled them instead of the gain of love. There would be no difference between the two systems as such, as $x + y$ does not equal $x - y$.

God, because He is God will always do things different from men otherwise men would claim to be God which they do anyway, but there is no foundation of truthful fact in man's claim because God lives, and He lives forever while man lives and then dies forever.

When the prehistoric monsters such as the dinosaurs roamed the earth millions of years ago, man was not even there to witness their creation or their extinction. Where is man's witness to these things? The only witnesses they have are the fossilized remains and the fossilized bones lying in the graveyards of these animals.

Man's testimony is a testimony to the punitiveness of man and God's testimony is the testimony to the greatness of God who created, made and formed the earth and the universe as well as the prehistoric creatures and man as a latecomer on the earth only. Man is trying to prove his greatness, by going to the moon, Mars and beyond. God has proved His greatness by putting the universe and beyond into place.

God's worlds, infinite without number will never go bankrupt whilst man's worlds will, because man has created an artificial world that is based on principals that are artificial in themselves.

Debt is an artificial system and is to be avoided at all costs even though the world does not think so, and it thrives on the artificial system until the end comes on them when their debts cannot be settled. Then payday becomes doomsday.

In God's system, as long as Christ the Son of God and the Son of Man in Heaven is considered in the matter, doomsday is God's payday and is opening day for judgment when man dies and comes before God.

In other words Christ is the reward for those that consider Him and believe in Him and take Him to heart and He has His reward with Him, when He comes to collect His own. Man is not like this and although there are many paydays in their lives, there are countless dismissals as well.

When the final payday comes and man cannot work due to death, disease, dismissal or old age then he awaits God's payday or God's doomsday depending on what he chooses.

In Revelation in the Christian bible, Jesus says "Behold, I come and my reward is with me." He is coming back and His reward is with Him for the obedient, the willing and the faithful. That is those that obey Him, are willing for Him and faithful to Him.

An unfaithful man may be rewarded by his superiors on earth but he will not be rewarded from Heaven. Only the faithful, the obedient and the willing will be rewarded from Heaven by the Lord for their faithfulness to Him and for Him and in Him.

Man's unfaithfulness towards God in general will make him bankrupt eventually. If not through his own efforts that have failed then by others efforts that have failed due to their unfaithfulness.

Unfaithful men become bankrupt, if not sooner then it happens later and if not later then much later, but bankrupt they will become. If they make it financially then they will not make it health wise. If they make it health wise they will not make it spiritually. The price they pay eventually is their bankruptness.

The world is unfaithful before God in the things pertaining to God and the price it will pay is bankruptcy sooner or later. The world is tottering on the brink of bankruptcy, and it would be well if only the full extent of their impending bankruptcy can be seen and brought out into the open for every one to see.

Due to conniving in high places the impending disaster is continually averted but there is a time, even a day that the inevitable will happen. Corrective measures do help but sometimes the calculations behind the scenes are wrong or faulty or miscalculated and then disaster strikes like a serpent waiting in the grass. Once the strike is done and the poison is in then only immediate action to avert the disaster can prevent it. If the action is not immediate and sometimes there are unforeseen circumstances, delays and plain carelessness that precludes the strike from becoming cured and in its place the strike becomes deathly, lethal and devastating.

Death or paralysis comes from the poison that is not neutralized and soon the corpse will fall in the place of its end. The strike of the snake is about to come upon the world and the poison will be injected into the world and if not attended to and neutralized it will cause the corpse of the world to fall in the place of its end.

However, the Beast will prevent total death to take place and he will provide the antidote that will resurrect the world from its impending death. Unfortunately the relatively small snake that bit the world will be replaced with a large snake, that will inevitably strike out to the world and its inhabitants, and that will be worse than the first snakes venom and will bring about catastrophe as the larger snake strikes, and the venom of the Antichrist goes into effect to bring paralysis to the truth and the righteousness of God in the earth. Paralysis of righteousness will replace the health and vitality of true God given, Christ orientated righteousness and this will continue until Christ the Son of man returns to earth on the Mount of Olives to take control of the situation, and to counteract the venom and paralysis operating in the world and to bring the true and real antidote to mankind once again.

He brought the antidote on Calvary two thousand years ago to mankind but when He returns to earth He will bring the cure. At the present time the antidote is available to mankind but not the cure because they do not want the antidote. The cure is unreachable and unattainable, even though it is possible to be cured.

Anyone looking at the world and its problems must admit surely, that the venom has paralyzed the victim the world, and the cure is not there because they do not want the antidote.

The poison in the world from the snake has killed two point five million Kurds in Iraq, one million Tootsies in Rwanda and one million people in the Balkans to mention just a few of the victims of the snake bite and its venom.

The snake is the disreputable, the despicable potentates that will kill a million people and take a million lives just to fulfill their many, miserable ambitions and aspirations and dreams. In actual fact not one of these miserable, sick and evil potentates is worth one of the least of the people that they killed.

These potentates as rich as they are; are absolutely bankrupt in themselves in human relations and self worth. They are murderers that never have enough. The more blood they spill the more bankrupt they become and the more miserable is their actual lot in life. No money and in fact no amount of money can purge the blood of the innocents off their hands.

This is just another facet of the bankrupt system of the world. Whether in blood spilled or money collected, the world system is in bankruptcy pending.

CHAPTER 2. THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2J. THE WORLD HAS A BEGINNING AND AN ENDING.

The world has a beginning and its beginning is to be found in the bible of the Christians. Babel of early history, Babylon of middle history and Babylon Harlot of Mystery in the coming history of the earth, all have one thing in common and that is their common beginning which is based on principles of the world. The world has a common ancestry and it is based on mammon and the love of mammon.

Mammon by definition is the acquisition of wealth obtained by unrighteous means, methods and ways. All manner of unrighteousness is involved in this system from embezzlement to deceit and corruption and gain and profit is the motive. Gain and profit is normal and is not evil in itself. It is the manner and method and the means with which it is practiced that makes it evil, wicked and unrighteous.

The world knows its way which it specializes in and it will not deviate from its way that it specializes in. It knows where it's heading because it sets its plans and then works towards achieving them. It is not bothered with the trivia; it aims at the maxima that it can achieve with the minimum of trivia.

When trivia is considered it is only considered for what it is and that is trivia. The world bulldozes and blunders its way ahead and forward, and it cares not how it achieves its aims, whether by fair means or foul.

Fair means will be used where it is needed and foul means will be used where it is expedient. Expediency is the key word and it is fact the password as well. Expediency, no matter how harsh or cruel or wicked, allows the world to pass by its unfortunate victims and once they are squashed there is no resistance and the world moves over them.

The world is not concerned who it squashes or breaks down. Its opposition is crushed and then it passes on. The world has an entity and it is that entity that is doing all that the world desires to do.

No one is safe in the world because the world may pass you in its advance but when it turns it will come for you and you will get your share of the problems and upheaval that the world passing by leaves in its wake.

To know the world is to know sorrow and heartache and to love the world is to open oneself up to pestilence and death in one form or another.

The world has no conscience nor has it a feeling of guilt. Its conscience has long ago been seared into oblivion and its guilt has been thrown into the rubbish bin.

The world knows no limits of decency. The only decency it displays is the seeming and supposed decency that it reveals on the surface but underneath the bedcovers everything is wrong.

Look at the world politics with a balanced eye and you will see the rottenness that pervades everything that the world is busy with. America goes to war in Vietnam not to win it as a war should be won but to drag it on and out until the stench of its defeat is openly apparent to all that can comprehend or understand.

This is just one example but there are so many. It is actually one force following another farce. The world is busy with farces. Farces with forces busy with farces.

They go into Iraq to get Saddam Hussein and leave with him untouched, alive and well to carry on with his evil plans to bring the world to its knees (Since the writing of this it was so but he is now captured and awaiting trial which is also being drawn out and pending indefinitely)

America is by no means the only culprit. Other countries of the world also have their farces that they are busy with. Bluff and counter bluffs are what they are all busy with.

Hitler did not bluff the world, he was deadly serious. He only bluffed the German nation. He hoodwinked them into believing him to achieve his ambition. Luckily he failed otherwise we would have had a world full of Nazis ruling over us.

Yes the world has a beginning but it also has an ending and its going to end when Christ the Son of God who is the Son of man, puts an end to it and its systems.

However before that time comes around the world will employ its nemesis the Antichrist, the Beast and the False Prophet to further the aims of the world.

The Beast will use the world to further his aims and ambitions, and the world will honor the Beast, because he will further the aims of the world economically, politically, militarily and religiously to gather all into one global system.

The world wants that but so do Lucifer, the Devil and Satan. They want that so that they can rule mankind in the world.

The world is power mad and so are its leaders and so are its citizens. The Antichrist will be power mad because Lucifer is power mad and so is the Devil and Satan who will control him.

The world has a beginning and it will end itself if it is not careful. It has an inherent ability and potential to end itself at anytime.

One power mad man could cause a holocaust of atomic fury and devastation in this world that is comprehensible to man because they saw and witnessed what was done to Hiroshima and Nagasaki with two nuclear bombs. Can you imagine if the nuclear arsenal amongst the nations got going amongst the nations, what would happen to the earth and its inhabitants?

The world would cease to exist and that is what it does not want, but the danger is ever present that that can and will happen. If it does happen that will be the end of the world. Satan has a plan with the world but Christ the true Christ has a plan with the earth and its inhabitants.

If Satan, the Devil and Lucifer were left to their own devices without restraint and without intervention the world would end and it would really end.

However God has got other plans for the earth and its inhabitants because of his love for man who He created on the earth which He created as well as the universe which He also created.

His plan will prevail and it will prevail not temporally but eternally as well. Because of this man has a hope. God's word declares the intent of God towards man, if only man would believe it and receive it and appropriate it as it is and if they will help God to get his plan going.

There are the people of God that work with God on the earth instead of against Him, but there are those that work against Him trying to avert His plan with mankind. They think and believe that they are prevailing in this matter but it is only an imaginary thing because God will carry on with His plan without them.

The Pharos are gone, Gengus Kahn has come and gone, so has Hitler, Stalin and Lenin and hundreds of thousands of others and God is still carrying on with His plan. He will not let up nor will He fail to bring His plan to pass. Man will pass away but God will continue forever.

CHAPTER 2. THE TIME OF THE BEGINNING.

SUB CHAPTER 2K. THE WORLD ALTERS ITS IDEAS IN ORDER TO CONFORM.

No one can deny that the world is in trouble with itself and the trouble is increasing in the overall picture and plan of things. There are good things happening as well in the world but the overall picture is grim.

Negative things are happening all over the world from time to time. If it is not trouble in Bosnia then it is trouble in Palestine. If it is not trouble in Palestine then it is trouble in Zimbabwe and so on.

The trouble spots shift around the globe going from country to country and from continent to continent. No sooner is one trouble sorted out then trouble appears elsewhere. There is a constant shifting varying conflict around the globe.

Added to this scenario are the catastrophic events also shifting around the globe, floods, volcanoes erupting, droughts, earthquakes, hurricanes and tornadoes, all of these things make the earth a pretty frightening place to be living in.

Not to mention major plane crashes, train smashes, shipwrecks and oil platform collapses etc., which makes the earth a place of turmoil, tumult and trouble for millions.

Then there are the famines and pestilences such as aids and aids related sicknesses, malaria and typhus etc., all of these things add to earth's sorrows.

Then there are the murders, mass genocides, rapes, pillages, plunderings and riots and even anarchical takeovers etc. This just adds to the woes of earth's inhabitants.

It is all prophesied in the Word of God as coming on to the earth. The earth is reeling back and forth like a drunkard under the onslaughts of man, God and the enemy of mankind, the Devil.

If all of these events in just one year for argument sake say year 1999, were to happen at once, the world would collapse under the strain of the economic impact of it all.

As it is the world staggers at the impact of these things as they occur at intervals in the year. Fortunately the earth is big and its inhabitants number six and a half billion, so relatively large portions of the earth escape these onslaughts and also large populations of the earth also escape these onslaughts.

However there is a time coming upon the earth that tumultuous things are going to start happening at once. This will bring about panic on a global scale. You do not believe this can happen, you reason it is just not possible.

Well it is going to happen. There are times coming when one third of the inhabitants of the earth will be wiped out through sword, pestilence and famine. Go and read it in revelation in the New Testament of the Christian Bible. It is there for all to see.

Life has a way of spreading calamities out but there are times when it all happens at once. We all know of families that have terrible crises in a row. Even the planets line up once in a few hundred years. The earth is no exception. You must remember that even in Noah's time the flood came upon all the earth. True, God allowed it and even caused it to happen.

God is going to allow and cause it to happen once again when the earth will be destroyed by fire. In the meantime there will be lineups of calamitous occurrences happening all at once that will cause massive loss of lives and devastation on a grand scale amongst the inhabitants of the earth.

Now all these things that are happening on the earth are accurately foretold in the scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, more so in the New Testament because the truths that were partially veiled under the Old Testament have been revealed more clearly and plainly than ever before. Christ Jesus the Son of God came to open up and fulfill the Old Testament and to open up and enlighten the people of the earth so as to see and understand and comprehend the mysteries hidden throughout the past.

He gave credence and understanding to what the Old Testament was saying. He enlightened our mind by, through and in His Spirit to conceive and perceive what God is saying to us in these days of the times of the end.

This is what the Spirit of God calls enlightenment. Many that say that they are enlightened are not enlightened by God but rather by the elemental spirits of the universe. There is a difference and the difference is as great as the Heaven is from the earth in distance. The Devil has many counterparts and he has many cohorts, agents and influences and they are all evil.

The world has understanding but it is limited to that which is its own. The people of the Lord have understanding that is as unlimited as God Himself is unlimited if they will allow God to give them His understanding. That does not mean that we will understand everything and everything as God understands it, but we will understand clearly what He wants, allows or desires for us to understand.

The world is not interested in understanding these things, they are only interested in understanding that which belongs to them, concerns them and appertains to them. All else is meaningless to them, because they do not want it to have meaning to them, and not because these things do not have relevant and pertinent meanings.

The children of God want to conform to the commandments, precepts and ordinances of God in Heaven and of Christ and the Holy Spirit and they will alter their ideas to conform. The world also wants to conform and they will alter their ideas to conform when it is required of them as it will be when the Antichrist comes into power and starts to rule.

The world will at first desire to change their ideas to conform but will eventually be forced to change their ideas to conform. The Antichrist will ensure this because he will want all to conform. Those that do not, he will cause them to die or to be put to death, unless they do conform.

This will mean that the world will alter its ideas and the people of the world will alter their ideas so as to conform, either willingly or unwillingly, either of their free will or coerced and forced into altering.

The world will not understand or comprehend correctly, but will be deceived into believing, what the Antichrist wants them to believe, as understanding or comprehending. This deception will be from Satan, Lucifer and the Devil and will cause the people to err greatly. No one that receives and believes the lie will have true understanding.

Only when one truly understands or truly comprehends can one avoid and bypass the lie. The lie will prevail in all the earth and only the true enlightened ones, enlightened by the Holy Spirit of God will understand what is happening on the side of the Antichrist or on the side of Lucifer and on the side of Christ.

People say they are of Christ but live like the Devil, they say they belong to Christ and live like Satan. They say they follow Christ but act like Lucifer and they are one. I have seen a man that did good deeds for the aged and he had a wonderful personality but he was a rapist and not only outside his home but with his own daughters, and not for one month but for thirteen and sixteen years respectively.

This same man gave out he was a holy man in the church. He was on the church council and yet he was caught out and found out that he had molested and raped his own daughters during their young lives.

What understanding did this man have? What comprehension was he busy with? The understanding and comprehension of the Devil, Satan and Lucifer.

God, Christ and the Holy Spirit are the Heavenly beings for good on the earth and in Heaven, whilst Satan, the Devil and Lucifer are the beings for evil on the earth and in Hell as well. Man is in the middle of these two entities and they will either belong to the one or the other.

The hypocrites give out that they belong to one or the other, usually the good one but in effect, working and in deed they belong to the bad one.

As a result of all these things people around them are deceived and that causes problems because trust is given by the genuine one and betrayal by the hypocrite.

A hypocrite can help himself to go straight if he wants to but usually they do not want to, nor do they make an effort to change. If they do it is halfhearted and without real intent or content.

The world will alter its ideas to conform and will be hypocritical at the first but will remove the good and turn itself over to the evil eventually. This will cause the good people to go to the evil eventually or it will tempt them to surface depending on their courage and will to avoid or accept confrontation.

In the time to come shortly the good will be very good and the bad will be very bad. This is because the hypocrites will be sorted out to decide on which side they are on. The good side or the bad side.

This will cause separation of people, the good on one side and the bad on the other side. When Christ comes He will do another separation of the good on the one side and the bad on the other side. The first separation will come about by the choice of the individuals and the second one will come about to divide those that have chosen according to what they have chosen. The Antichrist will bring about the first and Christ the true Son of God will bring about the second.
